Kids brave the heat for this run

J.M. Denyes is running wild.

The local public school began a two-evenings-a-week running club this spring. Christening the group were nine girls from grades 4 and 5.

Their hard work and enthusiasm were put to the test Sunday in St. Catharines where the pack took part in a charity run in support of the French-Mahaffy Victims' Integrity Fund.

Each and every local participant successfully completed the five kilometre run. Jenna Murray led the way with an outstanding 29-minute finish under a scorching afternoon sun.

"It was harder than I thought, especially in that heat," said the long-distance dynamo.

Club organizers Irene Carroll and Peggy Neely started the running club in an effort to broaden the school's athletic interests.

Their hope is that the younger students will decide to join the ranks as most from this year's club will be graduating to the middle school level in the fall.

Alayna Brynes, Jaimee Carroll, Sara Kilmury, Amanda McKinnon, Jacqueline Quinn, Amanda Robertson, Kasandra Rudder and Rebecca Tomlinson were among the other members.

Young Drivers helps parents say yes to drivers' licences.

Want to go for your licence? Trying to persuade your folks? Why not bring them to a free parent-teen co-driver session at Young Drivers of Canada? (Or call us for a free video brochure!) We can show Mom and Dad that with YD-s famous risk perception, emergency maneuvers and collision avoidance training, you'll be able to handle the responsibility of a licence.

After all, we've already trained over half a million people to drive as if their lives depended on it.

Just call Young Drivers, and say the word. We'll reserve your seats.

And maybe they'll let us put you on the road!
