It was party time

Sunny weather brought out the crowds to Rotary Park Wednesday for Canada Day celebrations. At top left, Amanda Coad painted her face accordingly and took it all in. At top right, Jay Kilbourne, 15, aimed high in bike competitions at the tennis courts. At right, recording artist Cyn D of Kilbride opened the festivities by singing O Canada with the crowd. At bottom, Mark Ley, 18 months, plays with dad Brian in the centre grassy area of the park. At far left, a dancer from The Dance Shoppe entertains, while at the immediate left, a young member of the Fighting Griffins martial arts club goes through her forms routine.
