God saw the hills were hard to climb

A silent tear, a constant wish you were here
We love you too dearly to forget.

PAMELA

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there, I do not sleep
I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamond glints upon the snow
I am the birds that circled flight
I am the starts that shine at night
Do not stand at my grave and cry
I am not there, I did not die

Forever grateful for knowing a friend with such tremendous courage and strength.

Your loving wife, Dina

SCHOUTEN, Chris - July 3, 1997
In loving memory of our Dad.

Sometimes you used to let us fall down,
Just so we'd learn how to climb back up again.
Sometimes you would try to keep us from doing something because you knew we'd be hurt, but we would do it and hurt ourselves anyway.
Sometimes you were away when we needed you, but we knew you'd be back to help us soon.
Sometimes you cried because you were so proud of us and sometimes we cry because we love you and miss you,
So much, Always, we are thinking of you...

Linda, John, Chris, Al, their wives and your grandchildren.

WHALEN - KENNETH, JULY 1, 1997 -
In loving memory of our Dad and Papa

There now are footprints in the sand
Where once our Dad used to stand
There now resides an empty space
Where once our Dad took his place.
There now is an echo of a song
Where once our Dad's voice belonged
There now sits a guitar untouched
The one our Dad loved so much
How we wish that he were here
We all loved him, most sincere He's worked so hard
He's done his best
There God blessed him
With eternal rest.
