Mangled maze not a problem

Mike Podd negotiated a maze of mangled motorcars to win his second race in three weeks Saturday at Flamboro Speedway.

The Canadian Vintage Modifieds class driver stayed focused through a collision-filled frenzy, fighting off rookie Joe Arsenault of Burlington through the early stages and Norwich's Rob Mass down the stretch to take the checkered flag. Mount Forest racer Chuck Lawler was the top finisher in the Late Modifieds feature while first-place in the Challengers division went to Hamilton's Derick Lemyre.

Larry Gripper of Stoney Creek prevailed in Street Stock competition.

Action continues this Saturday with racing getting underway at 7 p.m.

Tennis club social

In honour of the 1998 Wimbledon Championships, the Milton Tennis Club will host a club social Sunday.

Games and refreshments will be available as well as all of the televised action of the world's best players. The event will get underway at 1 p.m.

The club is located on Childs Drive. For more information, call at 876-1811.

Bristow never in doubt

Bristow had a family illness at the time of the auction and was unable to accompany Melnyk to Kentucky.

But as luck would have it the sale was televised and she knew of their winning $120,000 bid immediately.

Little did she know, however, that she would soon be watching her prized acquisition steal the show at Canada's oldest and most prestigious horse racing event.

Bristow said there "was no way to describe" how excited she was when Archers Bay stormed past heavily-favoured Brite Adam down the stretch to victory at Woodbine.

As excited as she was, the Bristow Farms owner never once doubted her thoroughbred's ability to win, even after he finished eight and a half lengths back of Brite Adam in the Plate Trial.

Said Bristow, "He got boxed in, which cost him several lengths. In any other circumstance he wouldn't have lost by that much, if at all. We knew that if everything went right and he got a clear path his chances were as good as anyone's."

With just five starts under his belt heading into the June 21 classic, Archers Bay was the least tested entry at the Queen's Plate. Ongoing shin problems kept him out of commission for much of his two-year-old season.

But with that and a Queen's Plate victory now behind him there's plenty of talk about the Archers Bay team going after the other two legs of Canada's Triple Crown -- the Prince of Wales, July 19 at Fort Erie, and the Breeders' Stakes, August 16 at Woodbine.

"I really haven't thought about it, we just have to see," said Bristow.

Though owning a Queen's Plate winner is by far Bristow's crowning achievement in the sport, she's not about to become pre-occupied with Archers Bay.

"Sure from a public standpoint he's my most successful horse, but to me they're all famous."
