'Mini' maxes out at awards

Scoring sensation Darren (Mini) Haydar bid farewell to the Jr. A Merchants Saturday, but not before receiving a truck-load of going away presents.

Milton's all-time goals and total points record holder was inundated with trophies at the 1997/98 year-end awards banquet.

The crowning jewel in his new collection was the Ontario Hockey Association (OHA) Player of the Year award for all of Jr. A hockey.

At the Provincial League level Mini garnered both top scorer and most valuable player awards. He was honoured with the same trophies by the Merchants.

The University of New Hampshire bound rightwinger amassed a whopping 101 goals and 102 assists in 90 games last season.

Another multi-award winner — as the club's Playoff MVP and Most Popular Player — was Shane Sullivan, who was initially brought in as an enforcer midway through the 1996/97 but ended up becoming one of the most complete players in team history.

The Merchants' other award winner were as follows:

Chad Blundy — Rookie of the Year
Mark McPhail — Best Defenceman (second year in a row)

Kevin O'Flaherty — Most Improved Player (won for West Conference as well)

Daniel Jacques/Jeremy Wenzel — Top Goaltending Tandem for West Conference.

T.J. Lee — Unsung Hero
Steve French — President's Award (Scholastic)

The entire Merchant roster received both their away jerseys, complete with Royal Bank Cup crest, plus championship rings to commemorate their All-Ontario triumph.
