Select under 11 girls win consolation prize

• from MAGIC on page 18

Success continues

The under-11 girls select squad continued to shine in tournament play recently, winning the consolation crown in Etobicoke.

After a 2-0 semifinal loss to North London snapped their string of eight straight tournament victories, Milton rebounded to edge Brantford 4-3 in a title match shootout.

There was no score after regulation time, with local cagers Cassandra Berghammer and Sara Mancini combining for the goose egg.

Berghammer would also register one of the shootout goals while Elaine Robinson, Teia Clement and Tammy Merritt fired in the others.

Milton's goaltending tandem were perfect through round-robin play, which saw the locals edge both North Bay (1-0) and York (2-0) and battle to a scoreless stalemate with North Mississauga.

Merritt potted all three goals.

Fierce attack

Long since past a midseason rough patch, the under-15 rep boys are now running roughshod over their South Region Soccer League competition.

Last week they annihilated two more opponents to move into sole possession of third place.

"Now that we've got a full lineup we're destroying everyone," said Magic coach Adrian Wood, whose team suffered through a rash of injuries this summer.

"It's a shame we were so shorthanded through June and July, otherwise we might have been atop the standings now."

Milton's latest victims were the Guelph Royals, who were exploited early and often in a 9-2 shellacking last Thursday.

After holding opposing strikers in check for the first half, Robyn Holt came out of his net and buried two goals down the stretch.

Replacing him between the pipes was Carlos Samaniego.

Eric Wood also tallied twice while Quinn Young, George Raynard, Justin Tingley, Ryan Sanson and Greg van Es chipped in singles.

Two nights earlier at home the Magic dumped second-place Owen Sound 6-1 on the strength of two-goal outputs by John Little and Ivan D'Ascanio.

Scoring one a piece were Wood and Young while Holt guarded the cage.

The 9-6-2 Magic close out the season Tuesday at Thompson North against East Hamilton. Game time is 8:30 p.m.

Pair of losses

A shortened bench cost the under-10 rep boys back-to-back losses recently, which dropped them to 7-5-3 on the year.

Monday night they were humbled 5-1 at home by top seeded Cambridge while last Wednesday second-place Hamilton outdistanced them 3-1.

Scoring for Milton over this stretch were Jacob Demarsh and Matthew Price while Johnny Gazzola guarded the cage.
