Wurster aces his flying scholarship examination

Cadet Flight Sergeant Glenn Wurster scored the highest marks in the province in obtaining a Royal Canadian Air Cadets flying scholarship this year.

The air cadet is a member of the Milton 820 Blue Thunder Squadron and managed a perfect 100 per cent on the entrance exam.

Also qualifying for a powered flight scholarship was Cadet Sergeant Willis Nigh, while Cadet Sergeant Maciej Hatta and Cadet Corporal David Brookes won gliding scholarships.

Other awards were presented during the recent annual inspection at Tonelli Sports Centre; Glenn Wurster was the Air Cadet of the Year, Cadet Sergeant Jason Klip won the Jim Rendles Award for Initiative, Cadet Leading Aircraftsman Paolo Dal Bello took the Chris Hadfield Award for Academics, Cadet Stephanie McIver won the Michael Garrioch Award as cadet who has most benefitted from the experience, Cadet Leading Aircraftsman David Ellis was Most Improved Bandsman, Cadet Leading Aircraftsman Phillip Kelley was Best Dressed Cadet and Cadet David Uhrig was Outstanding First Year Cadet.

Graduation certificates for successful completion of the program went to Cadet Warrant Officer Jason Suter and Cadet Flight Sergeant Wurster.

The Milton Canadian Champion IS LOOKING FOR CORRESPONDENTS

The Milton Canadian Champion is looking for talented individuals to serve as correspondents in the areas that receive the Champion but who do not receive regular coverage in the paper. This is an exciting new venture for the Champion and for the areas in question, one that will allow the paper to provide coverage of events and people that until now we had no way of gaining access to. We are looking for dedicated, knowledgeable, literate individuals to write a weekly column for the Champion about news, events and the people in their community. The Canadian Champion requires correspondents in the following areas:

- Campbellville
- Kilbride
- Hornby
- Brookville
- Speyside
- Lowville

If you possess the qualities and dedication to become a Champion correspondent for your area then contact:
