

Most games cliffhangers as girls wind down season

Nail biting cliffhangers were in ample supply during the Milton Girls Softball Association's houseleague Day of Champions, held recently at Lions Sports Park.

The following is a rundown of championship day action:

Senior Division,
Championship Game
Knights of Columbus 4
Bruce Hood Travel 3

Superb pitching was the story in the title match, with Knights of Columbus' Jen McManus and Lindsay Nijholt barely eclipsing the efforts of Tracy Tonna and Elisha McGee of Bruce Hood.

Leading the victors with a triple was Mandy Huffman while teammate Shannon McManus turned in a rock-solid catching performance.

Nicole May crushed a solo home run for Bruce Hood to keep things close in a game featuring strong pitching and defence.

Consolation Game
Financial Planning 15
The Key Centre 13

Sparked by a three-hit showing from Sarah Liut, Financial Planning staged a dramatic come-from-behind victory in the last two innings of play.

Also instrumental in the rally were pitchers Shelly Speck and Crystal Newton, who were highly effective down the stretch.

Melanie Preston and Carolyn Coates were on the mound for Key Centre while Katie Howse led offensively with three hits. Sarah Paul contributed a triple and a single.

Friendship Game
Richardson Chev. Olds 14
Creative Memorials 14

An appropriate conclusion for a 'Friendship Game', with a highly entertaining seesaw battle eventually ending in a stalemate.

Richardson's Tara Fiorita went 4-for-4 on the day and nearly hit for the cycle. She finished with a homer, double and pair of singles.

Teammate Rhea Newman contributed a triple and a double.

For Creative Memorials it was Sherylene Leslie and Lisa Van Alena who anchored the offense with two hits apiece.

Crystal Murray and Stephanie Leslie handled the pitching duties for Creative Memorials while on the mound for Richardson were Josephine Ceelen and Katie Locke.

Junior Division
Championship Game
Kwik Kopy 20
Hunt Plymouth Chrysler 19

Speedy baserunner Melissa Comstock scored four runs, including one in the final inning to led Kwik Kopy to victory.

Tiffany Daly and Kim Smith pitched well for the winning side and were supported with solid hitting by Maryse Lalonde, who cranked out a double and a single.

Stephanie Williams and Lori Iantorno belted homers for Hunt while Meghan Sinclair ended the season in style with her first hit. Pitching for Hunt were Williams and Kendrie Richardson.

Consolation Game
Neill Transportation 14
Halton Community Credit Union 4

Holding HCCU bats in check were pitchers Vicki Krantz and Heather Gibb, with all of their teammates contributing both at the plate and on the mound.

HCCU scored all of their runs on walks and stolen bases. Splitting the pitching were Shannon Allum and Kim Howard.
