

Cops think car at service station was torched

Police are investigating a car fire they believe was deliberately set in the parking lot of a Main Street service garage.

The 1989 Chrysler New Yorker left at Churchill Collision for repairs went up in flames overnight Saturday.

However, an investigation revealed a briefcase in the car was taken out before it was torched, said Det. Sgt. Jackie Gordon of Halton Regional Police.

Man faces impaired charges

A 31-year-old Arthur man faces drunk driving-related charges after police stopped a vehicle travelling erratically westbound on Steeles Avenue early Sunday morning.

The officer on patrol pulled over the vehicle at Martin Street shortly before 1:30 a.m.

The suspect is charged with impaired driving and driving with over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood.

Major appliance heist

Thieves made off with $24,500 worth of air conditioners and fireplaces from March Sales on Main Street overnight September 23.

The major heist occurred sometime between 8:50 p.m. September 23 and 6:40 a.m. September 24.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 878-5511, ext. 2444.

Tools taken

UAP Auto Parts on Main Street was the target

Mercedes vandalized

About $1,000 damage was caused to a 1973 Mercedes convertible parked at the GO Station on Main Street September 23.

Sometime between 7:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., the culprit damaged the canvass roof and stole cassette tapes from the vehicle.

Colonel's safe cracked

Kentucky Fried Chicken lost an undisclosed amount of cash to a thief overnight September 23.

The thief kicked in an air conditioner, crawled through the space and located the Main Street fast food restaurant's safe, which was opened.

It was the restaurant's second heist this year.

Police Blotter

of a $10,000 tool heist overnight September 24.

The culprits pried open a window to gain entry and carted off the tools in a vehicle, police said.

Smash and grab

Thieves smashed out the front window of D D Autosound on Steeles Avenue and grabbed a stereo and a set of speakers overnight September 21.

The $7,000 theft occurred sometime between 9:30 p.m. September 21 and 5:30 a.m. September 22.

Police are investigating.
