two goals and two helpers in the return engagement to boost his point total to 43 — tops in the division.

Linemates Gillies and Schomogyi buried the biscuit as well. Seeds set up both of Beisel's first-period goals plus another by Wheelihan, who along with Gillies is an early candidate for most improved player. Each sits at a remarkable plus 25 and they are top 10 among division scorers.

Bigger bolts batter Milton bants

Size does matter.

With a significant height and weight advantage, the Elora Lightning were able to swagger into Memorial Arena and easily topple the local single A minor bantams 8-0 Saturday night.

The visitors used their superior mass and reach to dismantle the Winterhawks' attack — restricting them to just three shots in each period.

At the opposite end of the ice Nathaniel Murray was challenged 32 times. He kept his team within striking distance through the opening half with several strong saves on bottom shelf scoring attempts.

Elora broke things open midway through the second, scoring three goals inside a minute and a half. They popped in one more before intermission and then added insult to injury with three third-period tallies.

Offensive contributions were spread throughout the visitors' lineup, with members of the defensive unit as well as the top two forward lines lending a hand in the blowout.

They were particularly effective at the blueline and in close on short-range redirects.

Milton's Blair Britton and Tyler Hamill showed some good physical presence and helped keep things close through the early going.

The loss dropped the Lion Club sponsored crew to 1-4-1.

Hot in the cage

Goaltending continues to be the AAA major peewees' strong suit as they surrendered just a single goal over two games last week.

Unfortunately this wasn't enough to ensure back-to-back wins as Oakville threw up a brick wall as well in a 1-1 stalemate.

Rory Johnston took his shutout bid well into the final frame — with outstanding cage work — while Todd Gilmore scored Halton's lone tally, dumping in Jonathan Ram's doorstep leftovers.

Three days earlier Kyle Goertz stood on his head to earn the goose egg over Niagara Falls who were also beat just once by Hurricane snipers.

David Cianfrini scored in this one with a bullet from the point.

Turning in fierce two-way performances were Danny Powers and Ian Robertson.

Convincing win

Milton's AA major bantams scored early and often in a 7-1 humbling of Caledon recently.

Leading offensively with two goals apiece were Justin Tingley and Andrew Kirkland, who came up with some rock-solid penalty killing as well.

Caledon went just 1-for-5 on the power-play with their lone tally delivered on a partial screen play.

Rounding out the Winterhawks' hit parade were Trevor Ford, Luke Hendrie and Trevor Martin.

Evan Jeans and Chris Dumencu each drew a pair of assists while Chris Wasilkowsky stood tall between the pipes.

Seniors get sweep

E.C. Drury's senior boys volleyball team scored back-to-back match victories over a pair of top contenders last week.

They started with a 15-10, 15-8 sweep at Iroquois Ridge and then outdistanced Oakville Trafalgar 15-11, 10-15, 16-14 Thursday at home.

"Starting the season with two big wins like that was great," said head coach Kevin Houldcroft.

Power Chris Hunt led a dominant attack against OT while Mike Maynard had a strong setting game and Bobby Hicks was solid up the middle.

A week one sweep has all but guaranteed the senior Spartans one of the four playoff spots up for grabs in Halton's Volpe Division.

Meanwhile, Drury's junior volleyballers evened their record at 1-1 Thursday with a 15-8, 15-13 sweep of OT. Leading the team to victory were two-way anchors Travis Van Loosen and Quinn Young.
