37 In Memoriams

BROWN, Christopher - In loving memory of our wonderful son, who passed away November 3rd, 1997.

It's a boy they said as we heard you cry
And cradled you in our arms,
Gazing upon your tiny face, we were awestruck by your charms.

Diapers, tears and laughter,
Schoolwork, fun and flu,
Soccer games to teenage day
Lovely scenes of you.

Lost in love and hassle,
the years go rushing by,
We woke up one morning,
and you had said goodbye.
Your childhood's a special memory,
But we thank God above,
for the man and friend born from that child,
You'll forever have our love.

We miss you sweet angel,
More than you will ever know.
With all our love,
Mom & Dad xo

BROWN, Christopher - In loving memory of my darling grandson who passed away November 3, 1997.

Remembering you is easy,
I do it every day.
Missing you is a heartache,
That never goes away.
You had a smile for everyone,
You had a heart of gold,
You left the sweetest memories,
This world could ever hold.
To me you were someone special
What more is there to say,
Except to wish with all my heart,
That you were here today.

Too dearly loved to ever be forgotten.
Nanny Brown

NADALIN, Henry - In loving memory of a husband, father and nonno who left us on November 6, 1990.

In a quiet country graveyard
Around the corner of our homes
Lies the one we love and miss
Who died eight years ago.
We visit your grave often
And place flowers there with care
And no one knows the heartache
When we turn and leave you there.
To see your face, to see your smile
To sit with you and talk awhile,
Would be our greatest wish today.
The hardest thing in our lives to bear
Is to want you and you're not there.

Sadly missed by your wife,
children and grandchildren.
