

Bant own rink, pummel visitors

Complete dominance on home turf continues to be the forte of Milton's AA minor bantams.

The Winterhawks' last two performances at Memorial Arena produced a 5-1 and 6-1 thumping of Woolwich and Brampton respectively.

The victories boosted their season record to an outstanding 11-1-1.

Against Woolwich, Mike Winiarz set up Mitchell Boisvenue for a pair of goals while Andy Strazdins amassed three assists.

Also denting the twine were Matthew Funnell, Scott McLaughlin and Julian Ricci. Goaltender Mike Fratarcangeli was sharp but largely untested, facing just 10 shots.

Another balanced attack versus Brampton saw six different 'Hawks light the lamp and half the team collect points.

Instrumental once again with a combined five points were Strazdins and Winiarz.

Strazdins tallied twice while Winiarz drew a couple of helpers and scored himself on a solo effort.

Recording one goal and one assist each were Ricci, Kyle Burrell and captain Paul Szafer.

Jason Strong was solid in the cage, turning back 11 of 12 scoring opportunities.

Milton outshot their opposition more than two to one in both contests and continue to sit atop their Tri County division.

Offence dwindles

Milton's AA major bantams weren't quite up to par offensively last week and the shortcoming cost them back-to-back games in Tri County league play.

They were blanked 4-0 by Guelph in their latest outing — which featured remarkable passing and stickhandling by the victors.

All four goals came in the middle frame.

Sensing inevitable defeat, the Winterhawks came out fighting in the third with Robert Day and Mike Volpe clearly winning their respective slugfests.

Ryan Harper showed a lot of hustle throughout the night — one of the few local players who did — and created some quality chances.

The Primary Electric sponsored crew were outshot 33-17.

Before that, Milton squandered a two-goal lead and fell 4-3 to Orangeville, who held a slim advantage in shots on goal as well.

Trevor Ford paced the offence with a goal and an assist while Darryl Langstone and Quinn Young also buried the biscuit.

Picking up helpers were Andrew Kirkland and Jon Taylor.

Fall short

The AA major novices held powerhouse Fergus in check throughout most of their latest home game — but couldn't do so forever and ended up losing 5-2.

Milton headed into the final five minutes of play tied at two goals apiece thanks to a strong defensive effort, with contributions from blueliners Justin Bailey, Ryan Bauer, Ryan Lecky, Jonathan Monk and Justin Webber.

Despite a somewhat shaky finish, net-minder Joey De'Athe showed strongly against a team that went to the provincial finals last season.

Michael Brown and Jeff Lynch deposited the goals.

Milton's John Csefi races past a Font Hill opponent in 40 and over play at the Halton Men's Basketball Tournament Saturday. Despite their best efforts, the local team went 0-2 and were bounced early.

White takes title

Having fewer substitutes didn't help matters either.

Leading the victors down the stretch with 5-for-6 foul shot proficiency was Kent Sykes, while Jim Gaunt drained a pair of field goals to help put the game out of reach.

As a team, they hit four from downtown.

MVP honours went to Milton White's Bruce MacDonald, who at 6'6" controlled rebounding.

Blake Barber and Richard Gaunt led offensively for Milton Blue with eight points each.

En route to the title match, Milton White spanked Georgetown 72-43 — with Gaunt, MacDonald and Ross all hitting double-digits — and outdistanced Fonthill 48-40.

Milton Blue defeated both these teams as well.

In the B division (40 and over), Guelph eclipsed Font Hill 44-41 for the championship.

The local representatives — the 40 Somethings — went 0-2. They led Fonthill for much of the second round-robin game before eventually falling 38-34.

Bus trips to hot ski spots

Do you like skiing but detest winter driving?

If so, a more convenient weekly alternative is available with Halton's Love To Ski Club.

Throughout January and February the group offers Thursday bus excursions to resorts across southern Ontario including Blue Mountain, Alpine, Osler Bluff, Craigeleith, Georgian Peaks and Devil's Glen.

Denny's luxury buses are used for the weekday trips, which offer ski enthusiasts smaller crowds and shorter chair-lift lines.

The program is available to all area residents, regardless of age or ability. Pickup points are in Oakville, Georgetown and Erin/Hillsburg.

Ski and snow boarding lessons — as well as rental packages — are available at most destinations.

For more information on the Love To Ski Club, call Sydnie Young at 873-2592 or Les Bignell at 849-9856.
