

What Christmas Means to Me

My dad often takes about two weeks off work to celebrate Christmas with me, my brother, sister, and mom. We go to church on Saturday or Sunday to celebrate the birth of Jesus. It's usually so crowded at mass that we have to stand at the back of the church.

When we get home, we open the presents and we think about Jesus.

Joyful time

What Christmas means to me is a joyful time, a happy time, a loving time, a time to share, a time to celebrate, a time to give, a time to have peace and have fun.

We get to give each other presents.

Christmas pie

It is Christmas in the house. My brother received a pet mouse. I hope I don't get a pet bat! They are worse than a rat!

I want to get a pet cat. My mom says no because it will get lost in the snow. I am so glad it is Christmas. I am full of joy! But I can't wait until my mom gets out the Christmas pie.

Wise man

Christmas isn't a time of getting. It's a time of giving. It's a time to be with your family and relatives.

This year my dad even traded with someone at work to have Christmas with our family!

Christmas is a time to celebrate the birth of the Lord, Jesus. This year I will be a wise man in a Christmas play.

Seeing the light

The tree is up with lights on it. Santa is going to be here any minute.

When Santa is here, there's not a peep through all the house and all I could see was the Christmas tree.

The lights are flashing so brightly that it lights up the whole house.

White with snow

Christmas is a time to receive.

Christmas is a time to give.

Christmas is when the ground is white with snow.

Christmas is when baby Jesus was born.

Christmas is when Santa gives gifts to all the little kids.

Christmas is when we all pray.

Jesus crucified

Jesus is our saviour.

God sent down his only son, Jesus Christ, to be born of the Virgin Mary.

Jesus Christ lived and taught on our earth for 30 years then he was traded over to Pontius Pilot and from there he was crucified.

He hung on the cross for three painful hours.

When he was dead he went to Hell.

On the third day he rose and now he sits at the right hand of the father almighty.

Don't whine

Christmas means lot of toys for girls and boys.

I like the snow and especially the food.

To tell you the truth I'm always in a good mood.

Christmas is the time Jesus was born on the 25th.

I open up presents in the morning.

Be joyful at this happy time of year.

Please be good and don't whine.

Love, love, love

Christmas is a time of hope, a time of love and a time of joy.

Christmas means to grow.

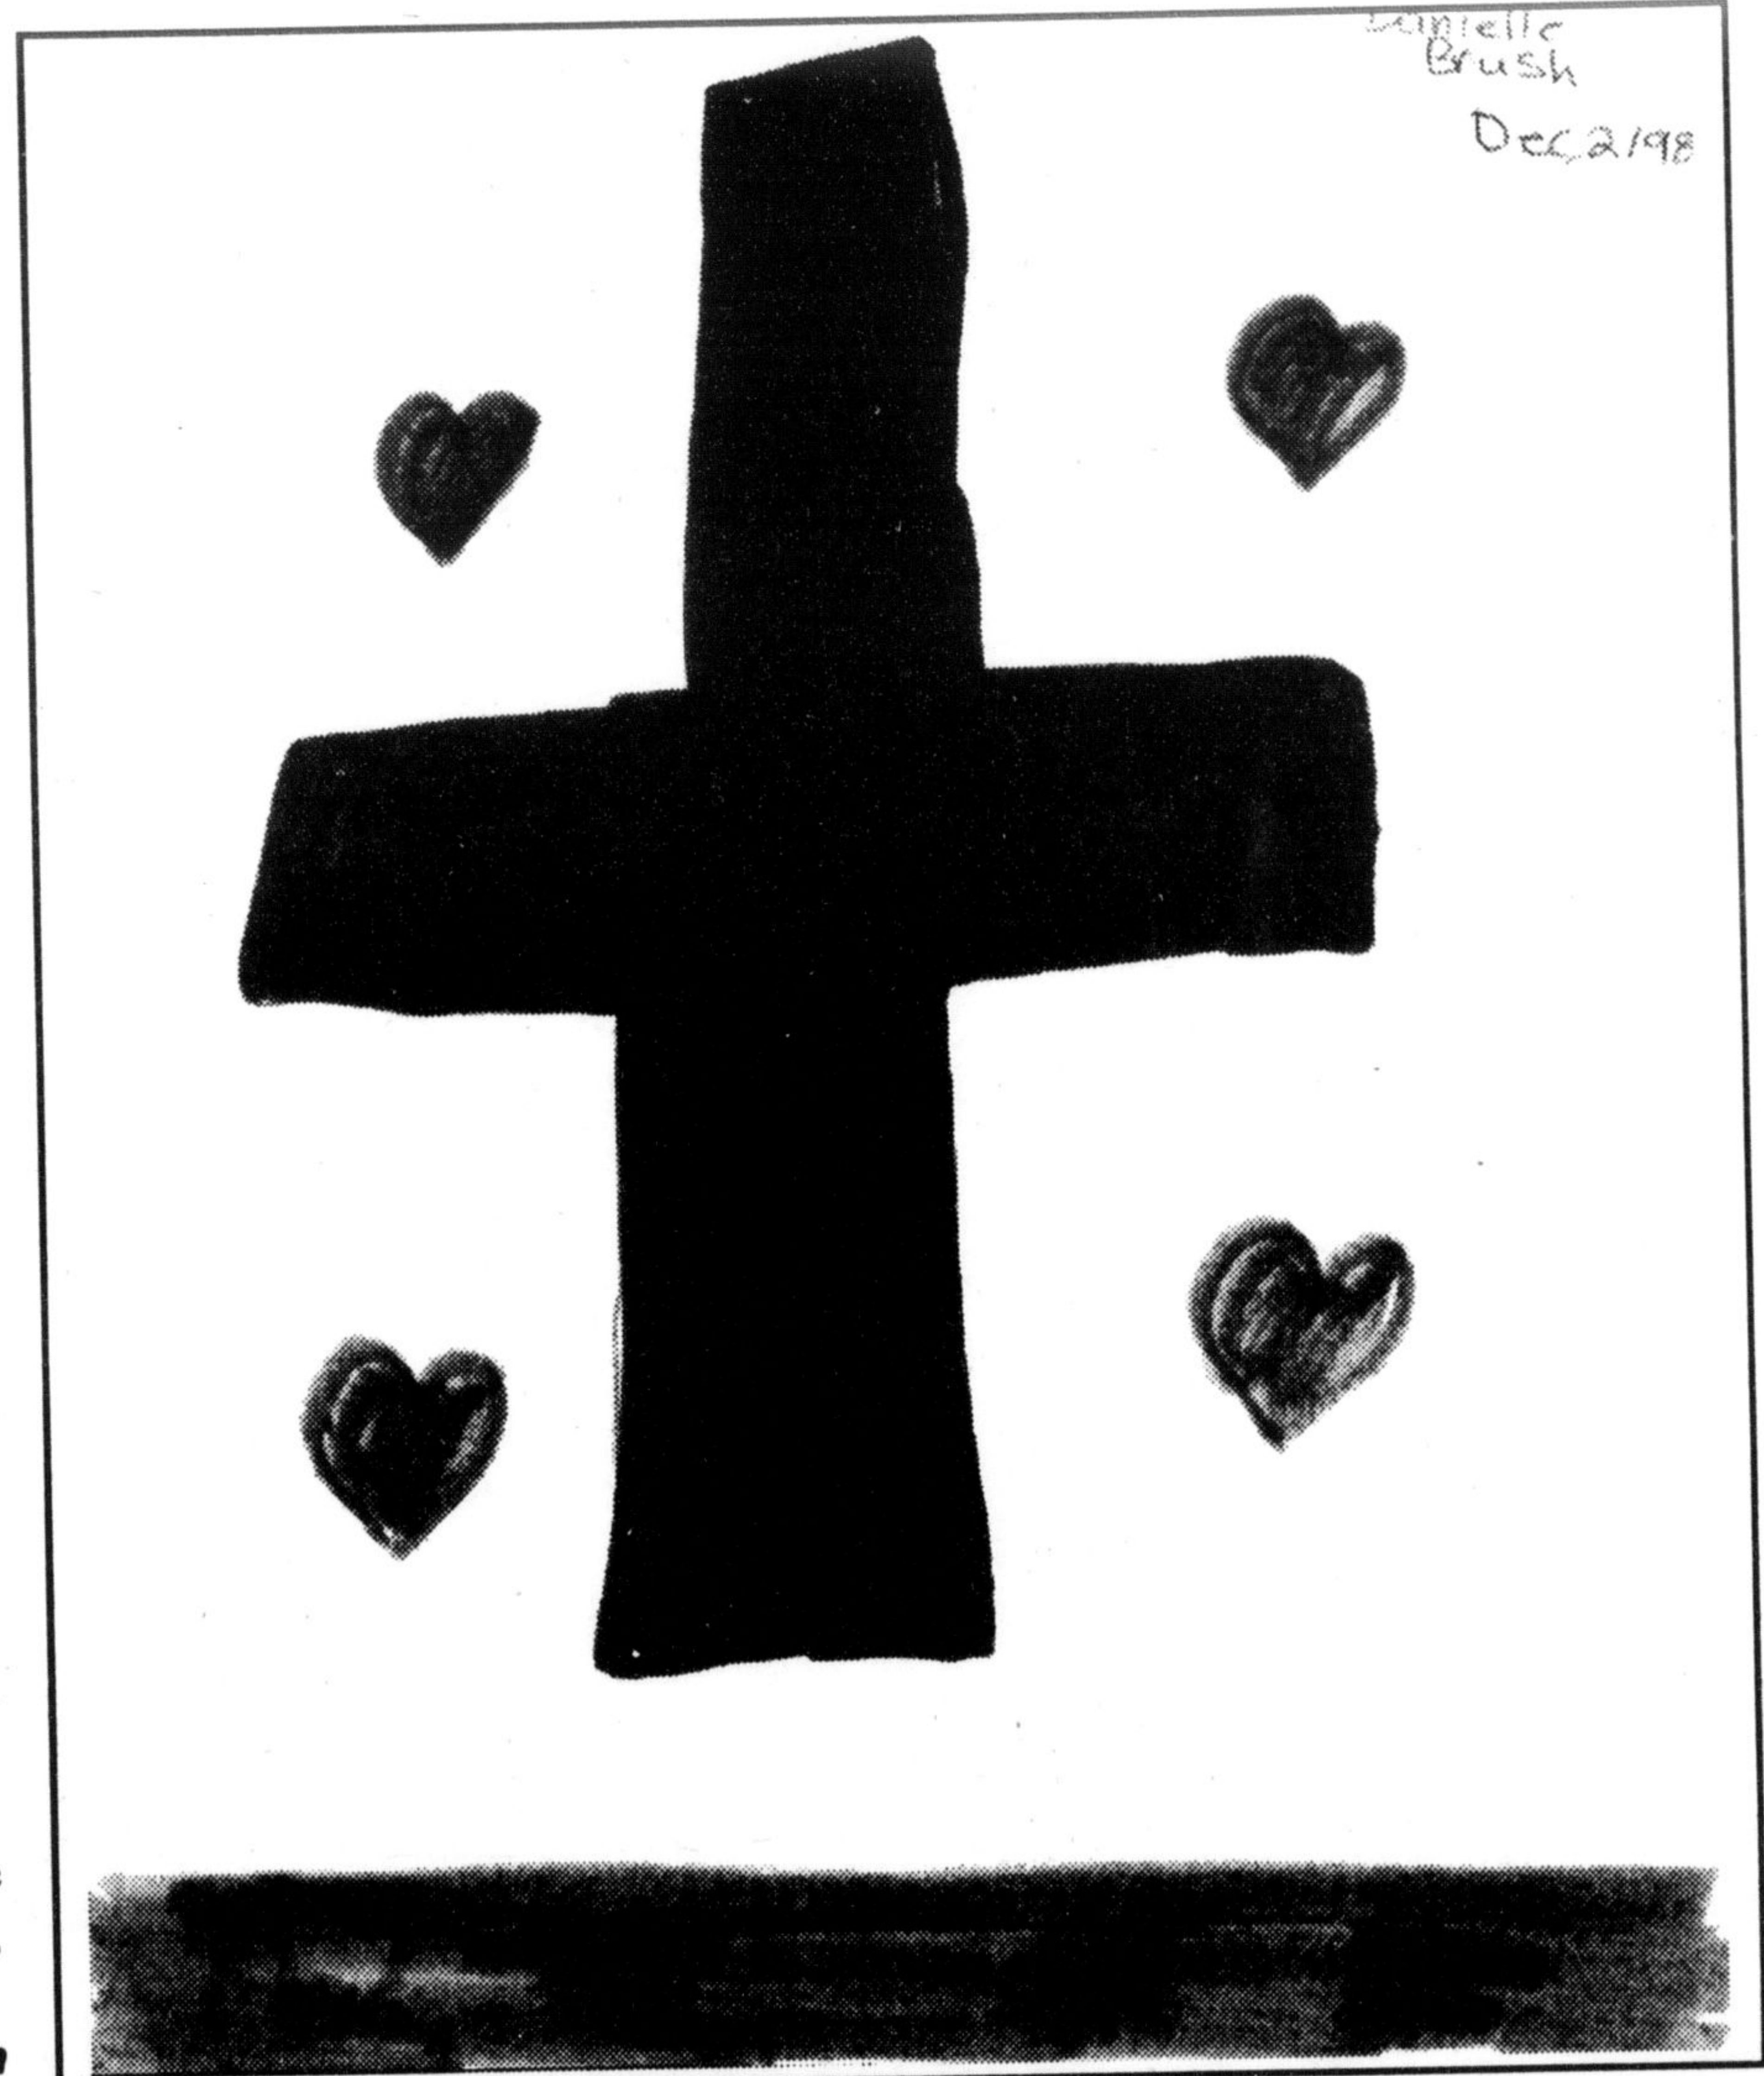

Christmas is also time to fly like a dove, a time of toys and love, love, love.
