

'Mini' earns five more points

Darren 'Mini' Haydar's embarrassment of riches continued last weekend with a five-point showing in NCAA play.

The Milton Merchants' former star sniper bagged two goals Saturday in the University of New Hampshire's 5-2 win over the University of Massachusetts at Amhurst. This marked his fifth multi-goal effort of the season.

A return engagement the following evening had the 19-year-old switching gears and drawing a pair of assists to go along with his first-period tally. UNH prevailed 7-2 to complete the sweep.

Now with 13 goals and seven assists in 15 games, the Wildcats freshman sits fourth in Hockey East scoring and 22nd for the entire NCAA Division 1.

Darren Haydar

In terms of goals he's second in Hockey East and fifth overall. Most recently he piqued the interest of the San Jose Sharks. While his size — 5'8", 165 lbs. — might be considered by some to be a stumbling block to professional hockey, the NHL does feature many legitimate scorers who're really no bigger than Mini.

Among them are Donald Audette, Theoren Fleury, Ray Whitney and 1997/98 Rookie of the Year Sergei Samsonov.
