

'Hawks have to move up as the playoffs begin

• from CONNOR on page 19

bled 6-3 by Burlington.

Captain Paul Szafer, Scott McLaughlin and Mike Winiarz were the local marksmen.

The team's only win of the new year so far came in a 5-4 squeaker over Orangeville. Szafer sank the final two goals while Matthew Funnell, Connor Sweeney and Sean Welsh chipped in singles.

Posting a pair of helpers each were McLaughlin and Andy Strazdins.

The 19-5-4 'Hawks — who spent much of the year playing in a single A loop — will now have to move up for the playoffs, which begin this week.

Strong showing

It was feast or famine for the AAA major bantams at the annual Burlington Invitational Tournament recently.

Halton hit both ends of the scoring spectrum in their last two round robin games, thrashing Sun County 11-1 and losing 2-0 to Chatham. Unfortunately, it was the latter of these contests they needed to win in order to advance.

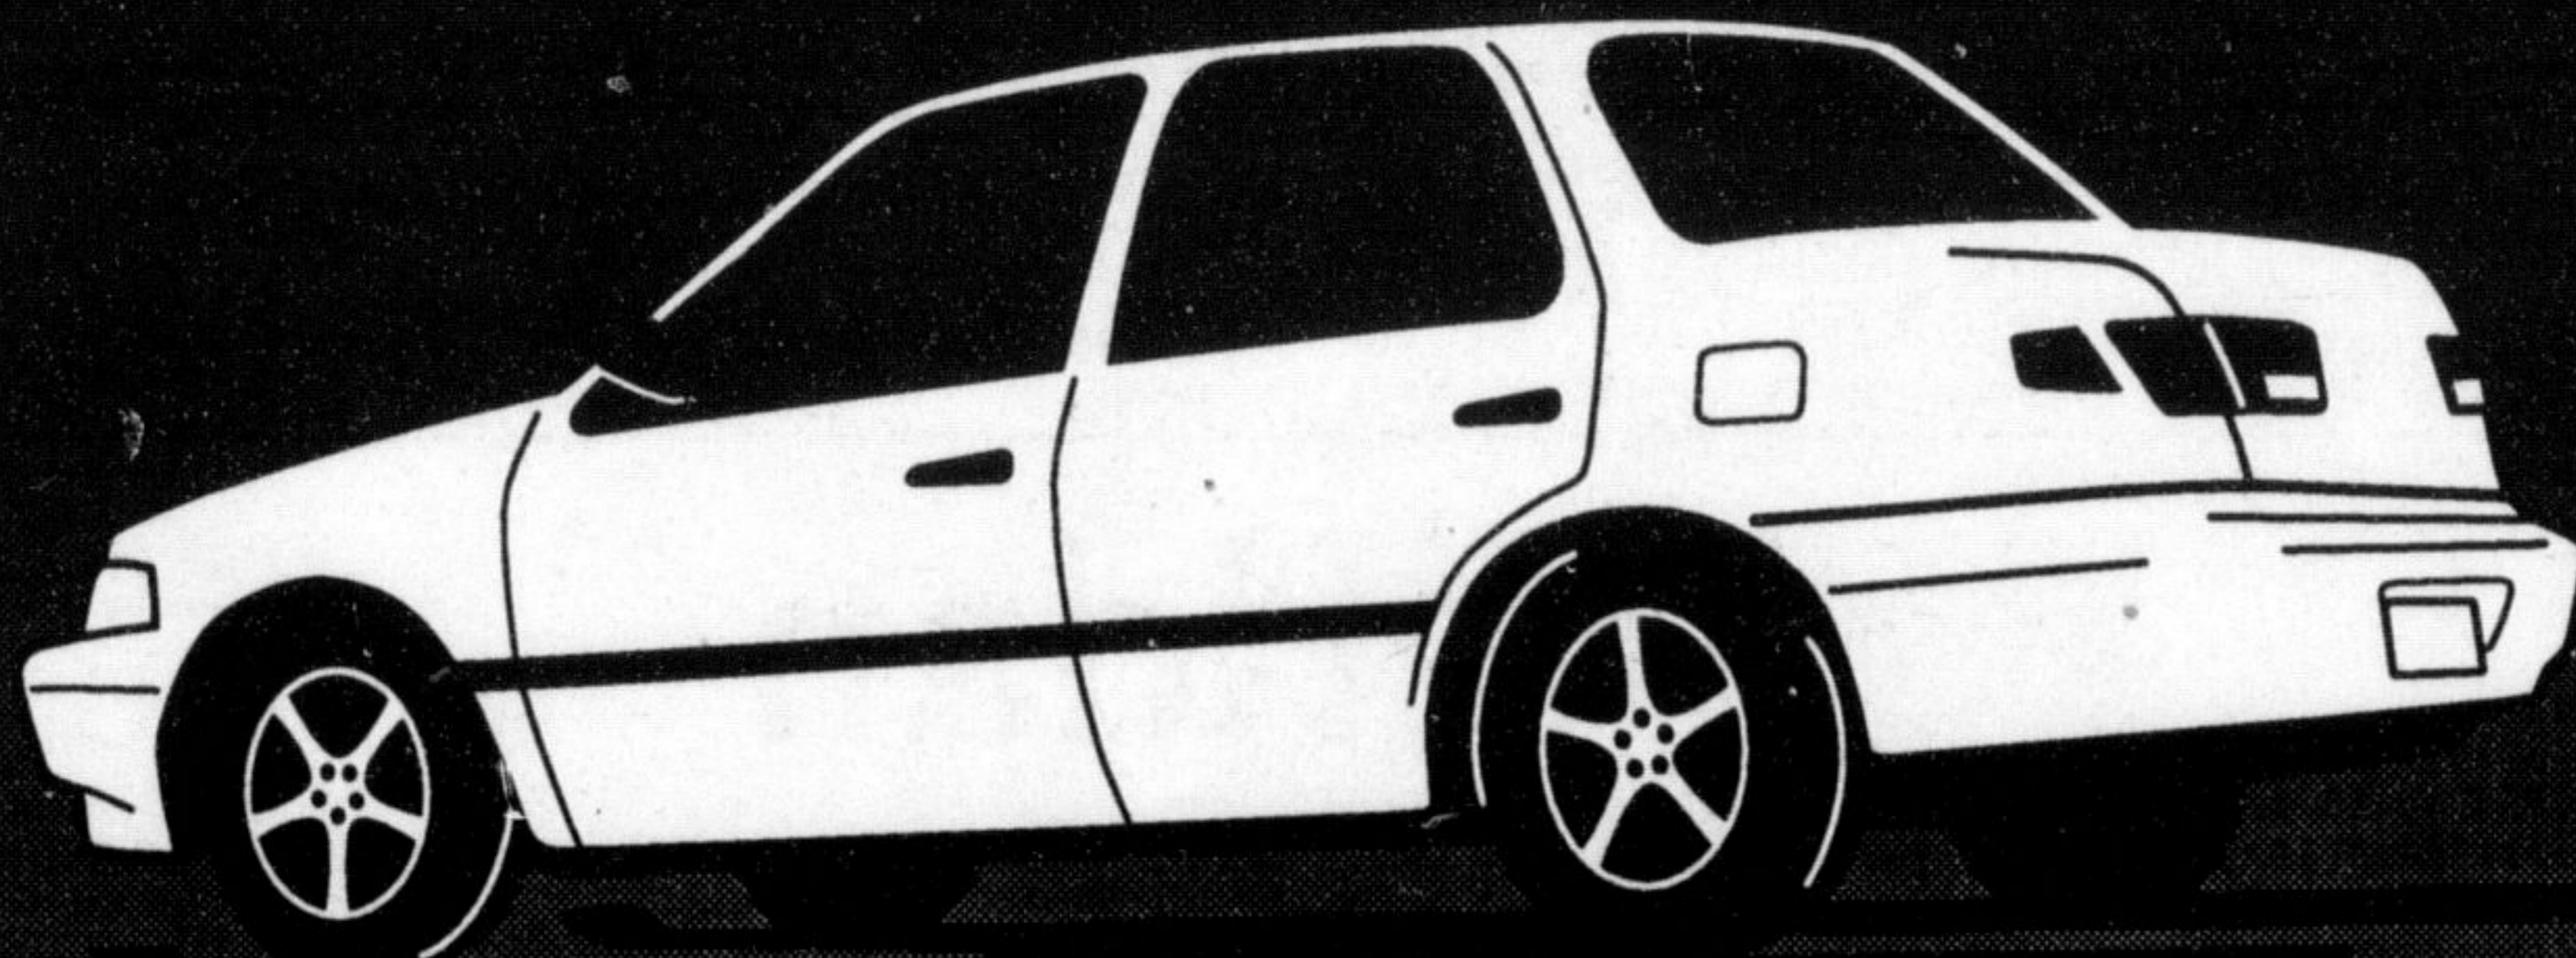

The blowout was due in large part to an opposing team that could only ice one full line. Frank Fazio led the way with four goals while Shandor Alphonso, Ryan Busby, Ryan Emilio, Kyle Hotham, Brad MacDonald, Paul Pedulla and Dave Taylor registered one each.
