

Sweet trip

The Arts Department is especially busy right now as tryouts for this year's school production of the musical "Dracula, Baby!" began this week. This year's musical promises to be one of the most fun-filled yet, so we encourage all aspiring actors or actresses out there to listen for announcements about times and places of future auditions. In other Arts news, an integrated arts trip to Boston is planned for the spring. Students involved in any of the arts programs, including visual and dramatic arts, as well as music are eligible to go on the trip. Anyone interested in traveling to Boston should see Mr. Gayfer in the music room for more information.

As for the graduating students of E.C. Drury, we have news for you as well. All graduating students should sign up on the list outside the phone booth in the LockerBay before Tuesday the 9th as the yearbook committee needs to establish a complete list of all grads for picture purposes. If any grads have yet to have their grad pictures taken, please sign-up in the main office as Josten's will be returning to the school on March 29th for students who either missed pictures first time around, or who need retakes.

On a final, quick note, any students interested in attending this year's Leadership Retreat should visit Mr. Murray in the guidance office to sign up. This announcement, however, pertains only to those students who will be attending the Retreat for the 2nd or 3rd year. This is a great opportunity for students to participate in fun, exciting group activities as well as to enhance their leadership skills.

That's about it for Dateline Drury this week. Please check back next week for more exciting news!

Grade "A" News at MDHS
By Jacqueline Bass and Marissa Cheskey

We have an exciting week coming here at M.D.H.S. On Wednesday, March 10 M.D. is hosting "Battle of the Bands". It will be held in the large gym at 7:00 pm until 11 p.m. "Battle of the Bands" will be featuring the Killjoys, BTK and many other bands created by our very own M.D.H.S. students. The bands will be battling for a chance to win ten hours of recording time to make their very own CD. Wow! So come on out and have a blast. There are more tickets to be sold at the door.

The Mustang Cheerleaders are having an exciting year. Recently they competed in Haltons and won first place after having to redo parts of their routine only hours before the competition due to an absent team member. Then they were off to the Regionals where they placed sixth. Coming up in May the cheerleaders will be heading to the provincial competition. Good luck!

Next year some changes are being made to the grade twelve entrepreneurs course. Mrs. O'Rielly will be running the course and students will get the chance to run their own business. The class will be running the school yearbook. Students will be responsible for everything from selling ads to taking pictures and organizing the book. It should be a lot of fun for anyone who is participating.

Well we hope to see all of you M.D. students at "Battle of the Bands" next week. Remember you are allowed to bring up to two guests from other schools. Have a great weekend and remember only one more week until March Break so hang in there!

Why do other driving courses say they're just like Young Drivers?

Maybe it's because Young Drivers has thirty years of experience teaching collision avoidance.

And over half a million graduates, coast to coast.

And more than a million dollars invested in driver training research, plus another million invested in annual recertification programs for our instructors over the past 10 years.

And has achieved Registration to the coveted ISO 9001 Quality Assurance Management Standard.

No matter what they say, no one else is anything like Young Drivers!
