Oakville's Mohan Anand will take on the recently acclaimed Halton North MPP Ted Chudleigh in the next provincial election. The much-anticipated election date has yet to be announced by the Tories.

Anand captures Grit banner

es, however the rules don't require it, and it wouldn't be practical for all people.

He said he will continue to work for the Liberal party, help with Mr. Anand's campaign and likely run again one day.

Mr. Anand said the focus of his campaign will be on listening to people — something he believes the current government isn't doing.

In his nomination speech earlier in the evening, Mr. Anand said health care and education issues in particular need immediate attention.

The new riding of Halton includes Milton, Halton Hills, north Burlington and north Oakville (from Upper Middle Road).
