Others may ask; what is Secret to the success?

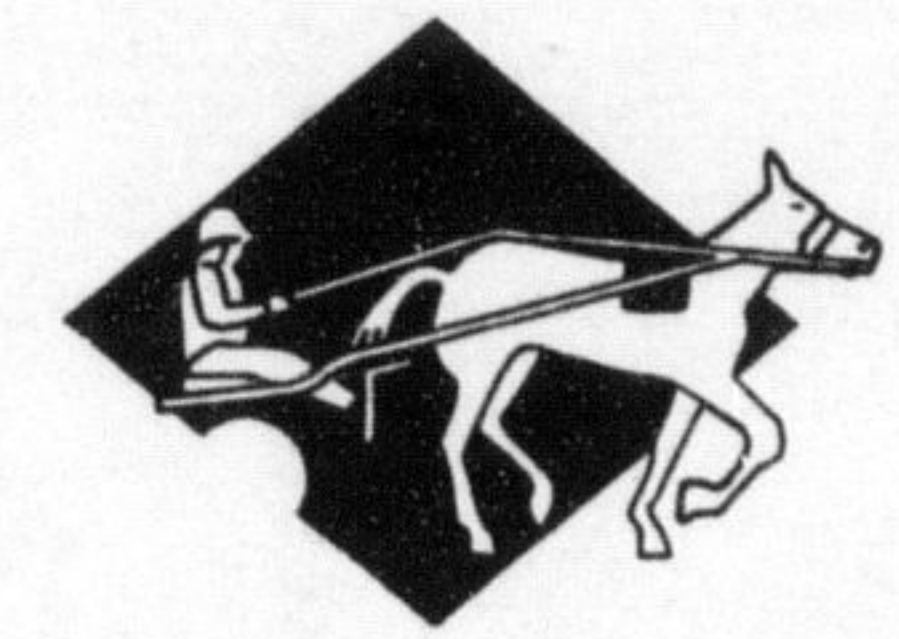

What is a Friday night at Mohawk this spring without Arts Secret dominating the $31,000 Fillies and Mares Open Pace?

Harness racing's brightest light was atop the podium again in stretching her phenomenal unbeaten streak to 11 on the Ontario Jockey Club circuit.

Her last defeat came on January 15 at Woodbine. Since then, the Lyle MacArthur-owned and driven mare has wreaked a path of destruction and currently reigns as North America's richest horse this year with earnings of $205,220.

Time and time again, opponents have tried every strategy possible to outfox the massive five-year-old daughter of Artsplace, but to no avail.

This time around, C'mon Get Happy — with Doug Brown driving — grabbed the early lead and deposited Arts Secret into the two hole through an opening quarter of :27.1.

MacArthur patiently waited until the last turn before showing Arts Secret the open air to which she responded by earning a hard-fought decision in 1:53.1. C'mon Get Happy had to settle for second with Daylon Finesse closing late for third.

"What a creature! She's just an unbelievable mare," said MacArthur, who resides in Hamilton. "It doesn't seem like she's getting tired either. She's going to need a week off one of these times but the farm keeps her fresh. I just hope she can stay good for the rest of the year."

Hockey spots still open

The Golden Horseshoe Hockey League, now in its 15th year, is currently taking applications for minor and men's summer programs.

Both individual and team entries will be accepted. All games are played at Burlington's Mainway Arena.
