

Field doubles for second leg of Pacing Series

After only seven three-year-olds contested the opening leg of the Mohawk Pacing Series last week, the field doubled in size with two divisions going postward in Saturday evening's second leg.

In the first division, Cambronne, who rolled over a non-winners of two event five days ago in 1:54.2, proved that effort was no fluke as he flew home in 1:53.1. Driven by Stephane Bouchard for his younger brother Christian, the three-year-old son of Beach Towel sat last through the first half mile before launching his bid.

He scorched a back half of :55.3 to win by one-and-a-half lengths over Windsong Flyer and Southview Krammer.

The last two performances have been quite a turnaround for Cambronne, who was plagued by a breathing problem his first three starts this year in Montreal. The handsome bay colt was sent to the Bouchard camp at Mohawk less than two weeks ago to try and get figured out.

Likes big track

"We've been working on his breathing and changed some equipment on him," said Stephane, who won the 1998 Mohawk Pacing Series with Resurgent Dragon. "The big track here also helps. He was having trouble with the turns in Montreal. He was racing on the front and here I've just tried to keep him calm and let him race from behind. He has a big motor and wants to race. I won the Series last year and I hope to win it again."

Owned by Gestian Jean Yves Blais of Montreal, Cambronne won his second race in five starts this year. Sent off at 9-2, he returned $11.40 and topped a $195.60 triactor.

In the second division, Salinas Hanover and driver Randy Waples were victorious.

Cruises to front

The Western Hanover colt left from post position three and settled away in the third on the way to the quarter in :27.3, which was posted by Cambeston (Reg Gassien). He cruised to the front before the half in :56.4 and led through three quarters in 1:25.2.

At the end, Salinas Hanover was a comfortable two-and-a-half length winner. Stopping the clock in 1:52.4, the Dick Macomber trainee defeated Nagano (Daniel Martin) and Sioux Dawn (Sylvain Filion) rallied late to take home the show money.

Owned by Dan, Pat and Matt Daly of Hamilton, Salinas Hanover has now won four of nine lifetime starts including three of four this season.

Sent off as the second favourite, the winner returned $4.80 and coupled with Nagano, the exactor returned $52.70.

Dexters Lifeline, the 6-5 favourite, took the first over trip and faded to finish seventh, ending his seven-race win streak.

ONTARIO PROVINCIAL ELECTION

It's Different This Time!

WE'RE USING A NEW WAY TO PREPARE THE VOTERS LIST FOR THIS ELECTION.

It's called the Permanent Register of Electors for Ontario and it means that most Ontario residents won't have enumerators knocking at their door this time.

REVISING AGENTS MAY CALL DOOR-TO-DOOR

In some areas where there has recently been a significant change in population, it may be necessary to complete a limited door-to-door canvass to identify eligible voters. In these cases, revising agents from Elections Ontario, working in teams of two, will be calling on residences to confirm voter eligibility. If the revising agents come to your door, please make them welcome.

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION CARDS WILL BE MAILED

The names of most qualified voters in Ontario will already be included on the Voters List for this election as a result of information contained in the Permanent Register of Electors for Ontario. Those voters will receive a Notice of Registration card by mail. This card will confirm that they are on the Voters List, and it will provide their electoral district and the location of the poll where they will vote on election day.

IF YOU DO NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE OF REGISTRATION CARD

If you are qualified to vote and have NOT received your notification card within TWO WEEKS, contact your local returning office for information on how to protect your right to vote on election day. Returning office locations and telephone numbers may be obtained by calling Elections Ontario or by visiting our website.

THE NOTICE OF REGISTRATION WILL LOOK LIKE THIS.

NEW ELECTORAL DISTRICTS

The boundaries for electoral districts in Ontario provincial elections have changed. The number of electoral districts has been reduced from 130 to 103 and boundaries are now the same as those for federal elections.

You may confirm your electoral district by calling Elections Ontario or by visiting our website.

QUALIFICATIONS TO VOTE

To be eligible to vote, on polling day a person must be:

- 18 years of age,
- a Canadian citizen, and
- a resident of the electoral district.

Persons who ceased to live in Ontario within the two years before polling day may be entitled to vote under certain conditions. Call us for further information.
