HEY, RUGBY FANS!

WALES WILL BE THE SITE OF THE 1999 RUGBY WORLD CUP this fall when 'Cup Fever' will take over this small country with a big heart. They're even bringing in extra bedspace in the form of four deluxe cruise liners which will be berthed at CARDIFF for the final. This exciting event will lead into their HOMECOMING 2000 - It's Time To Come Home, in which many projects, tours, celebrations, et al, are planned for the expected flow of returnees, and first-timers alike!

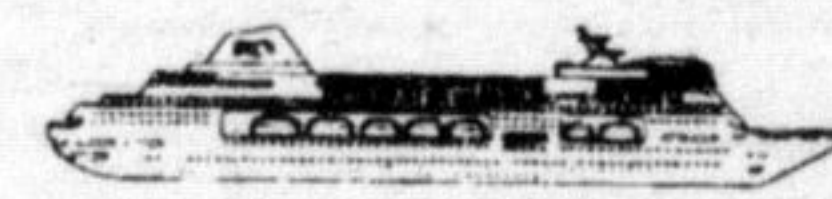

'FLIGHTOPHOBIA' CAN BE BATTLED in the form of a course one who has a fear of flying can take, called 'HAVE NO FEAR'. The program is conducted by a psychologist, along with pilots from Air Canada. There are four or five session courses, which include relaxation and behaviour therapy, and explain how aircraft and airlines operate.

ST. MAARTEN IS OFFERING MORE AIR SPACE THIS SUMMER. In addition to the Royal Airlines charter service on Sundays, visitors can fly on scheduled air service with US Airways Saturdays and Sundays via Philadelphia and Air Canada via Antigua on Saturdays. Remember our story about this being a great place to go for your marriage and honeymoon!

A CATTLE DRIVE AWAITS YOU IN FORT WORTH TEXAS Where they celebrate their 150th Anniversary with daily cattle drives along the banks of the Trinity River. The STOCKYARDS there are something to see, and this is where the 'drive' starts each day taking the 15 Texas Longhorn cattle to a grazing area by the river. You can visit BILLY BOB'S TEXAS - known as the world's largest honkey-tonk'!

CARNIVAL SPIRIT, which represents a new class of vessel for CARNIVAL CRUISE LINES is currently under construction in Finland, and won't be with us until the year 2001. Almost all cabins will be outside type with most having balconies as well. The cost - $357 million ...
