Bengals claw rivals

Brookville School ran, jumped and threw its way to victory at the Halton Regional Tier 2 Track and Field Championships Thursday at Burlington's Nelson Stadium.

The Bengals amassed four dozen medals and out-pointed all four of their rural rivals for the team title. Last spring they finished second.

A balanced attack was the area school's ticket to success — and nowhere was this more prominent than in the senior girls division, where the local ladies won five of 10 events to secure regional bragging rights.

Ashley Codner turned back all challenges in the 400m with a 1:14:57 effort while Erin Greenfield covered the 1,500m in 6:07:84 for top marks.

In the field, Chrissy Chadwick and Krista Kearns dominated the triple jump and shot-put respectively, with 7.91m and 8.29m showings that decisively defeated every competitor.

Also, Brookville took first in the 4x100m relay by clocking in nearly two seconds faster than runner-up Kilbride.

The Bengals' junior girls were nearly as impressive with a total of three gold medals — including a pair delivered by Jamie Greenfield, the only two-time champion in individual girls racing, who won the 800m and 1,500m with times of 2:58.85 and 5:57.86.

Alex Wilson was the other victor, squeezing out first-place honours in the long jump with a leap of 3:45m.

Leading Brookville's boys contingent was senior Lee Frittenburg. A multiple threat in the field, he prevailed in the shot-put and high jump — hurling the sphere 10:33m and clearing the 1.50m bar.

Junior Darren Trull grabbed first in the long jump, with a 3:56m effort, while age class teammate Ross Nicholls topped the 800m in a time of 2:54.56. Meanwhile, Nicole Cowper outlasted all in the intermediate girls 1,500m by finishing in 6:05.42.
