A Halton Regional Police officer takes measurements at the scene of a fatal accident last week. A Kitchener area woman died.

Woman killed at base of hill after car collides with truck

A tragic car-truck collision at Tremaine Road and Steeles Avenue Wednesday afternoon claimed the life of an elderly woman.

Despite efforts to save her life, Audrie Rhodes, 70, of Kitchener-Waterloo, died during treatment in Hamilton General Hospital several hours after the 3 p.m. crash.

The woman was driving her 1989 Chevrolet northbound on Tremaine Road when it was struck on the driver's side by an eastbound gravel truck descending the hill. She was alone in the car.

The Milton Fire Department used the jaws of life to remove the trapped victim.

The gravel truck driver suffered only minor injuries.

The intersection is controlled by a flashing red light to north and southbound traffic and a flashing yellow light to east and westbound traffic.

The accident is under investigation by the Halton Regional Police public safety unit.

No further information was released at press time.
