

Circus coming to town

The greatest show on earth returns to town next month.

Kelly-Miller Bros Circus presents two shows — one in the afternoon, another in the evening — at the Milton Fair Grounds Thursday, Aug. 12.

A sneak peak of all the animals and the traditional raising of the tents by the elephants will be available to the public the morning of the event.

Show times are set for 4:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Man charged in assault

A 31-year-old Arthur man faces charges following a violent altercation at a Guelph Line residence.

A 45-year-old man, the suspect's brother, was stuck with a large piece of wood at his home over the weekend, Halton Regional Police said.

A car also drove at the victim and a 17-year-old girl, who was dragged a short distance.

No one was seriously hurt.

The suspect faces charges of dangerous driving, assault with a weapon and uttering threats.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

Tuesday, August 10, 1999, 7:00 p.m.

J.W. Singleton Education Centre

2050 Guelph Line

Burlington, Ontario L7R 3Z2

HALTON REGION EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

TAKE NOTICE that on August 10, 1999 the Halton District School Board and the Halton Catholic District School Board will hold together a public meeting pursuant to Section 257.63 of the Education Act, to consider proposed new education development charges in the Region of Halton.

The purpose of the meeting is to ensure that sufficient information is made available to enable the public to understand generally the education development charge proposals and to solicit public input. Any person who attends the meeting may make a representation to the Boards in respect of the proposed education development charges.

The education development charge background study required under section 257.61 of the Act (including proposed by-law) and setting out each Board's education development charge proposals, will be available on or after July 12, 1999 at 2050 Guelph Line, Burlington or 802 Drury Lane, Burlington, during office hours.

All interested persons are invited to attend the public meeting.

Written submissions, which are received at least one week prior to the public meeting, will be distributed to all trustees prior to the meeting. The Halton District School Board and the Halton Catholic District School Board anticipate consideration of their respective by-laws imposing education development charges at a meeting of the Boards to be held together on August 18, 1999 at 7:00 p.m., at 2050 Guelph Line, Burlington. Should the by-laws pass on that day, the new education development charge rate may commence on September 1, 1999. All submissions received in writing and those expressed at the public meetings will be considered prior to the enactment of a new by-law.

Any comments re requests for further information regarding this matter may be directed to Mr. Al Greyson, Superintendent of Education, (905) 335-3663 ext. 3282 for the Halton District School Board or Mr. Domenico Renzella, Administrator of Planning Services, Halton Catholic District School Board (905) 632-6300 ext. 107.
