ADVERTISEMENT BEER CANS

Summer is here and that means beer drinking weather to most people. There is something new at Hogshead for the warm weather. It is a beer canning machine. What this allows is a customer to can their beer instead of putting it in plastic bottles. For those customers still wishing to use their own bottles this option is still available. Being able to can your beer means no more bottles to bring in and sanitize each time, you just recycle the cans in your blue box. Canning takes 20-30 min. per batch; a batch is just over 6 cases of 355 ml cans (52L.) and costs approx. $17.00 per case. There are small batches also available; these are 2 3/4 cases of cans (23L.). The cans also allow the beer to stay fresher longer than the plastic bottles previously allowed. The cans can be put into 6-pack rings for easy carrying and storing or they can be left individual in cases. A customer can also use the canning machine for their coolers. Hogshead has over 170 beer recipes to choose from; they range from lite beers to stout style beers. Whether cans or bottles, beer, wine or coolers let Hogshead look after your summer.

Please watch for our next column appearing Friday, July 30th.

Mavs down Wallaceburg

• from SWEEP on page 17

about who the better team was in round one.

From start to finish, the latter of which came at John Tonelli Sports Centre Tuesday with a convincing 16-9 victory, the Mavs demonstrated a great deal more creativity on offense and enjoyed far superior goaltending.

Dowdell — a '95 Founder's Cup champion with Orillia — was between the pipes for all but the final few minutes of round one and was dominant throughout.

Even when Wallaceburg called him for illegal equipment — forcing him to remove shoulder pads, which were never an issue before — his focus never faltered. Nor did that of Mike DeBoer, who worked the last six-and-a-half minutes of the series and was called for an identical penalty.

"Teams are going to try to throw us off our game with stuff like that," explained Dowdell. "We just can't let them, and we didn't. There's a lot of heart in this dressing room. Winston Churchill said 'never, never, never quit' and basically we're going by that philosophy."

With a full lineup back in place for game three, the national hosts dominated on the crease and on special-teams play.

Cory Leigh was firing on all cylinders, exploding for a season high of five goals, while captain Andrew Hartholt was in top form as well and contributed a hat-trick plus five assists.

Sunday's 14-7 win was highlighted by three-goal outputs from Hartholt and Matt Jackson, as well as a sensational third period by Dowdell.

At press time yesterday afternoon Milton was still waiting to see who their next opponent would be — either the Spartan Warriors or Sarnia Pacers.

Maverick notes: Milton scored five powerplay goals in each game of round one ... Paul Wade went down with some type of leg injury at the end of game three and is questionable for the start of the next series ... The Elora Mohawks remain the favourites to win the West Conference. They knocked off Six Nations Monday.

It's a hit!
