Hot Milton midgets on a win streak

Amazing, astounding, awesome. Any and all of these could be used to describe the midget Red Sox' current winning streak — which now stands at five games after another two merced victories in league play last week.

Milton began with an 11-1 thrashing of the Burlington Braves, a "AAA" calibre club who normally gives them trouble.

Not so this time around. Fresh off a tournament title triumph, the Red Sox blanked their guests over the last seven innings at Maplehurst park last Tuesday. Play was stopped at the end of the eighth.

Nathan Perrott was rock solid on the mound, giving up just four hits and a walk while fanning six batters in a complete game performance. Helping silence the visitors' offense were middle infielders Ryan Harper and Jordan Jeans, who combined for a dozen putouts. Overall, Milton committed only one error.

Driving in two runs apiece were Mark Black, Evan Jeans, Jeff MacLeod and Michael Volpe. The Red Sox exploded with eight runs in the final three innings to humble their traditionally competitive rivals.

Wednesday evening it was more of the same, as the midgets traveled to Martin Grove and engineered a 15-2 blowout in seven frames.

From beginning to end they were defensively responsible and offensively overwhelming — with production coming throughout the order. MacLeod scored four times and recorded a pair of hits, as did Black, MacLeod, Perrott, Volpe, Mike Grabauskas and Jarrett Konkle.

Volpe went six solid innings, tossing a five-hitter and giving up both runs. He surrendered two walks and registered five strikeouts.

Closing things out was Reese Davies, who made a fine debut on the hill with a couple of strikeouts.

On deck this week for the local midgets are Clarkson and Mississauga, both of whom should offer stiff competition.

Milton sits at 9-3 in league play and continues to hold a top four spot in the Central Ontario Baseball Association.

The Bantams bounce back in second half

Milton's bantam lacrosse team enjoyed a success story of the rags to riches variety at John Tonelli Sports Centre recently.

After firing blanks through the opening half, they rallied in truly dynamic fashion — battling back from a 5-0 deficit to outdistance the Brantford Posse 8-6.

Spearheading the comeback with two goals each were Derek Blanchard and Kris King, who buried the game winner with four minutes remaining.

Michael Novak would put the final nail in the visitors' coffin with an insurance marker in the dying seconds of the game.

The Mavericks' other marksmen were Lee

Frittenburg, Kyle Goertz and Jonathan Ram.

Working off a pair of lacklustre performances, the bantams' sharp uprising and subsequent victory couldn't have come at a better time — as they head into the playoffs next week.

Goaltender Bobby Lee Beaulieu was solid the entire evening, especially in the early going.
