Good conduct and high achievement in the Lorne Scots cadets earned chief warrant officer Kevin Cranley, left, and warrant officer John Benson a summer to remember.

Duo who work hard get to play hard too

By IRENE GENTLE
The Champion

Join the army, see the world. And if you are Kevin Cranley and John Benson, both 16, the same goes for the army cadets. The Milton teens were able to parlay their achievements in the Lorne Scots

Milton Army Cadets into two separate summer adventures recently. Kevin, a Bishop Reding student who joined the cadets when he was 11, traveled to Banff, Alberta for a six-week sojourn with glaciers, raging rivers and rock climbing thrown in for entertainment. And John journeyed to Scotland, the his-

Sally Ann needs help for Turkey

The Salvation Army is asking area residents to open their hearts and pockets in light of the recent earthquake in Turkey. The August 17 disaster killed 7,000 people and as many as 35,000 others could still be buried under debris. A Salvation Army Relief Fund For Turkey was set up last week and information on making donations can be obtained by calling 1-888-321-3433.
