

Three fundraisers highlight United Way campaign

paign leadership due to the time commitment, Mayor Gord Krantz agreed to act as honorary chair.

"We are counting on you to read our brochure and to respond to our need for funds by donating directly or by designating through your payroll deduction program," the mayor urged citizens.

"We need to raise $290,000 in our '99 campaign."

Last year, the United Way fell short of its $275,000 goal by $2,000, but it was still the most money ever raised by the organization in a single campaign.

Through those donations, 15,059 Miltonians were served by 24 agencies operating with the help of United Way support.

This year's campaign, led by the 12-member board of directors, will consist of collecting donations from private citizens as well as from industry, and raising funds through special events, Ms Eadie said.

"The need is closer to $400,000 in the community, but we know that's unrealistic," she said. "We would be setting ourselves up for failure."

The special events will include the United Way Golf Tournament Saturday, Sept. 18 at Executive Fairways Golf Club on Hwy. 25. Tickets cost $45 per person, which includes nine holes of golf, a barbecue and prize ceremony.

The next function — the dinner and auction — will be held October 15 at Rattlesnake Point Golf and Country Club. Tickets cost $45 per person.

The Christmas House Tour, featuring three urban homes and three rural, will be held November 13. Further details about the tour will be released at a later date.

Tickets for the special events can be purchased by contacting the United Way office at 875-2550.
