

Minor peewees off to a good start

Milton's AA minor peewees kick started their season in style — winning back-to-back one goal games last weekend.

The Co-Steel Recycling Winterhawks began by edging Guelph 3-2 Saturday. Providing the heroics was proven sniper Matt Chuchmach, who tallied twice and delivered the go-ahead goal in the third period.

Colin Martin also dented the twine while drawing a pair of assists was Matt Lenardon. Single helpers went to Matt Buck and Scott Collard. Guarding the cage in fine fashion was Austin Vanderboom, who received ample assistance from defencemen Luke Boltec, Mike Carn, Kevin Parker and Lenardon.

The blueline unit was equally impressive the following day in a 2-1 decision over Brampton. Chuchmach scored the opening marker and then helped set up the game-winner — which was notched by Buck. Also assisting on the play was Collard.

The 'Hawks held their old rivals to just a dozen shots on competent cager James Connor, while firing nearly three times as many the other way.

Fierce finish

Three third period goals helped Milton's AA atoms double up Fergus 4-2 in season-opening play Saturday.

Graham Sharp tagged two goals to vault the local boys past their opponents while Connor Mitchell sealed the deal with an empty net insurance marker in the dying seconds of regulation.

Assisting on both of Sharp's scores was Jeremy Brown while Jeremy Martin and Kyle Walker figured in one goal apiece.

Luc Hartwick potted the first goal. Between the pipes for the Herman Miller Winterhawks was Michael Sullivan, who stood tall and blanked Fergus over the last two frames.

'Hawks fly high

Milton's A major peewees rolled over Georgetown 5-2 to get their season off on a high note.

Unfortunately, the Winterhawks didn't quite come away completely unscathed, as forward Dan Christo sustained a fractured wrist. Steve Ellison led the way with two tallies while delivering a goal and an assist each were Sam Tomlinson and Cory White. Adding the other single was Greg Pepper while assists went to Jay Price, Kyle Thomas and Robert Morrow.

Rep Hockey

Goaltender Mark Strazdens was solid between the pipes, turning aside 19 of 21 shots.

Tied one on

The Milton AA minor atoms began the season by tying one on with Orangeville — battling them to a 1-1 stalemate.

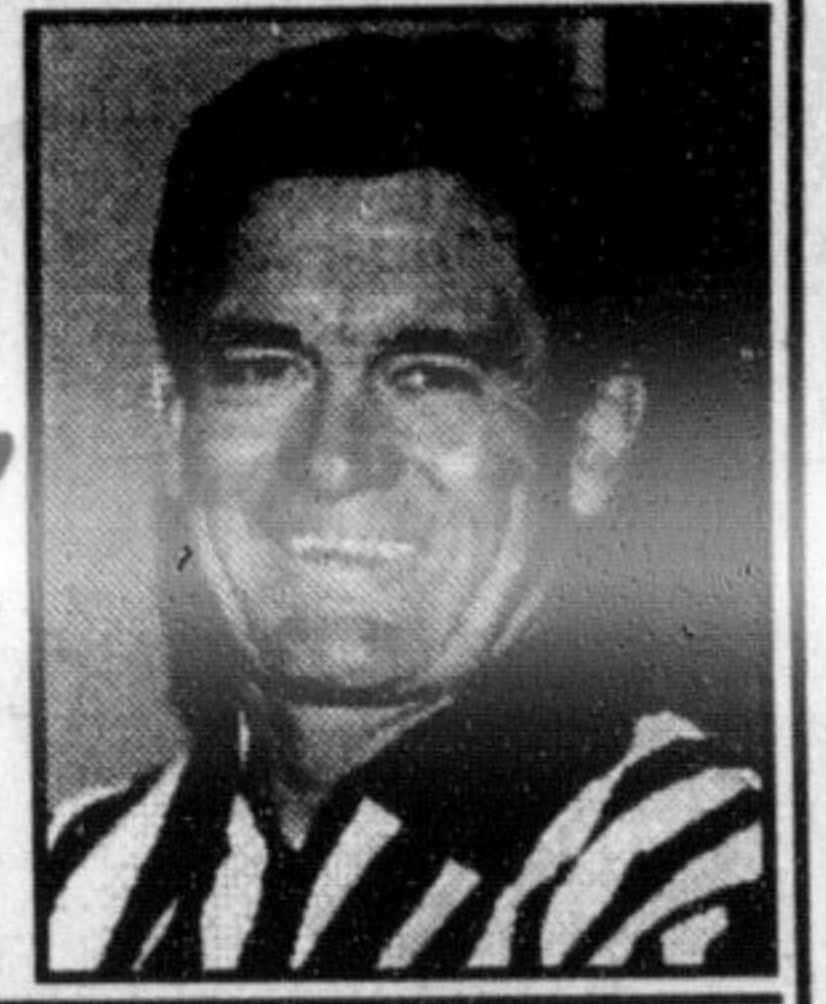

Goaltender Devin Medland was the great equalizer in a clash where Orangeville outshot the locals 26-15.

Mike Brown and Jennifer Warzonek gave particularly strong showings in a fast-paced, hard-hitting affair. Mac Fillman one-timed a blast late in the second period for the Milton Machine Shop Winterhawks' lone marker. Assisting on the play was Jeff Lynch. Orangeville then evened the count early in the final frame.
