

✓ Lest we forget

CANADIAN TIRE CORRECTION NOTICE

In the attachment to our flyer, week of October 2, 1999, called 'Great Toy Savings', we incorrectly indicated that the following items had our regular prices: Star Wars watches (50-2102-6); Beyond Pink Barbie (50-0662-4); Craft Fun Value 4-pack (50-5426-8); 6V Terrain Master (50-4272-8) and Elmo w/remote-control Puppy (50-0825-8).

In our 'Great Prices Great Savings' flyer, week of October 16, 1999 and in our 'Save More Every Week' flyer, week of October 23, 1999, we incorrectly indicated that all the toys on page 3 had our regular prices. Also, in our 'Early Holiday Sale' flyer, week of October 30, 1999, we incorrectly indicate that all the toys on pages 6 & 7, plus 'Furby' on page 1 had our regular prices.

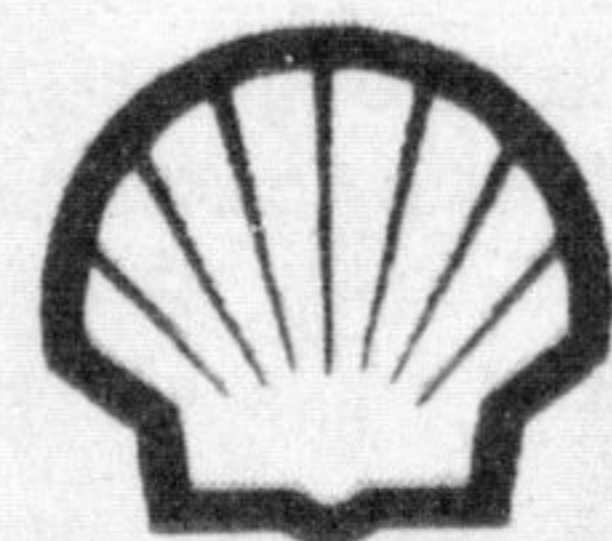

In all instances, the prices quoted should have been identified as 'after-sale prices'.

The savings relate to the differences between the sale price and the after-sale price.

We regret any confusion this error may have caused.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience we may have caused you.
