

Major novices stingy and loving it

Milton's A major novices continue to be quite stingy when it comes to goals against.

Last weekend they surrendered just one and put a couple more notches in the win column.

At Memorial Arena Saturday, Adrian Eppinger turned in the latest in a series of flawless outings to blank Dundas 6-0.

Kris DeNin and Jordan Haggart led offensively with two tallies apiece while chipping in singles were Eric Gottwald and Wade McGinnis.

Assists went to Ryan Cheesemen, Krista Dermott, John Grant and Tyler LaFontaine.

The Sandstone Transport Winterhawks

Rep Hockey

closed out the weekend by shading Ancaster 3-1 Sunday.

Keenan Farrell was rock solid between the pipes.

Recording a goal and an assist each were DeNin and LaFontaine while Jonathan Riding was the other marksmen. Marshall Vince picked up a single helper.

Back on track

Milton's AA minor atoms broke a temporary slump by edging Orangeville 6-5

Sunday.

While the final tally would indicate otherwise, the local lads controlled much of the game with strong skating and an impressive work ethic.

Brad Mewhinney provided the heroics for the Machine Shop Winterhawks — tallying twice and delivering the game winner with just over two minutes left to play in regulation. Assisting on the play were Mike Brown and Jeff Lynch, each of whom finished with a pair of helpers while Lynch also scored once.

Rounding out the hit parade for the victors were Mac Fillman, Craig Howse and Cody Murphy. Goaltender Joey De'Athe was solid in the cage.

od, putting the finishing touches on a well executed tic-tac-toe play while his team had the man-advantage. Assisting were Phil Barski and John Nadalin.

Blues' Travis Hindemit would even the count midway through the third by burying a wide angle wrister in low.

At Hamilton's Mountain Arena, Milton rallied from a 3-0 hole to earn the tie.

The Kilty Bees struck for three goals in the opening frame, but the Merchants matched that in the second period. From there, the hosts would take another lead before Rob Martin — wrapping up a three-point night of two goals and an assist — knotted the score with just over a minute left in regulation.

Dan DeLong and Chris Kerr were the other marksmen. Milton hosts Buffalo tonight and are back in Hamilton tomorrow at 7:30 p.m.
