Don't Forget to Wash Those Hands!

Just how clean are your hands? If you've been out Christmas shopping, chances are they are not very clean. Handling money or touching a shopping cart, a pay telephone, door knobs or handrails in public areas like a shopping mall are all sure to bring you into contact with bacteria and viruses. Don't get sick this holiday season. Please remember to wash your hands when you get home.

Police say arson attempted

A Milton man faces charges in connection with a potentially disastrous domestic dispute on Commercial Street Tuesday.

Police and firefighters arrived at about 4:30 p.m. to find a male party trying to set the house on fire — having already poured a container of gasoline throughout the residence.

A woman called the police and reported that a heated altercation had taken place early in the afternoon.

A 50-year-old suspect was arrested without incident and charged with assault as well as attempted arson.

Impaired charges
A 45-year-old Toronto man was charged with impaired driving November 25.

Police stopped a vehicle weaving back and forth while travelling westbound on Derry Road from Trafalgar Road.

A suspect was charged with impaired driving as well as driving with an excessive blood-alcohol level.

Heist thwarted

Gold Star Donuts on Thompson Road was the target of a thief Saturday.

At about 1:40 a.m. a passerby noticed a male party inside the coffee shop walking toward the cash register. Upon being detected, the suspect fled the scene.

Nothing was taken during the incident, although the front window was smashed.

Correction

Tuesday's article regarding a former Milton woman found guilty of welfare fraud was partially incorrect.

Terry Lynn Blanchard, now of Halton Hills, wasn't sent to jail for the crime as falsely stated in the story.

In actual fact, the year in jail ordered by the judge is a conditional sentence.

She was also sentenced to three years probation.

A term of the order is that she's not to apply for welfare assistance while residing with her common-law husband or any other adult for the period of the conditional sentence and probation.

As in the original story, the court also ordered her to pay restitution of $10,022.

Ms Blanchard recently pleaded guilty in Superior Court in Milton to charges of bilking Halton Region of $10,022 between October 1, 1994 and August 20, 1995.

She was collecting welfare as a sole support parent while living on No. 15 Sideroad with her common-law husband. The couple have a child.

The Champion regrets the error and any associated embarrassment or inconvenience it may have caused.

Tree-lighting against abuse

Abuse can't be tolerated. That's the message behind the Ontario Public Service Employees Union's tree-lighting ceremony Sunday.

The event will take place at 6 p.m. at Victoria Park on the Town Hall grounds.

The ceremony is part of a national day of remembrance for the 14 women who were shot and killed by Mark Lepine at Montreal's Ecole Polytechnique.

The public event is also meant as a symbol of the union's opposition to abuse of any kind. All are invited to attend.
