

Major novices show their skill, but come up short

The Chatham Tournament held a golden moment and a silver lining for Milton's AA major novices.

The Winterhawks came out on top in three-on-three skills competition at last weekend's showcase. Goaltender Taylor Prestidge, Jeff Black, Brian Hunter and Matt Jessup upstaged the field and came up winners.

Unfortunately, the same couldn't be said when it came to actually tournament play — in which the local boys reached the championship finals but were shaded by Belletire, Michigan 4-2.

The game winner was potted inside the last three minutes of regulation time while an empty netter sealed the deal. Milton's scorers were Matt Clark and Brian Hunter.

The 'Hawks went unbeaten through the round robin. They sandwiched a 4-1 victory over the hosts with stalemates against Brantford (5-5) and Sarnia (4-4).

Scott Stover led offensively with four goals — tallying twice in the win and once in each tie. Clark had a pair of goals through preliminary action, as did Jeff Black and Mark Thompson.

Strong showing

Milton's AA midgets won four straight games before falling to the hosts in the semifinals at last weekend's Pickering Tournament.

A 3-1 loss in the final four clash was as competitive as the score would indicate — with the local lads outshot 22-19.

The Spectrum Airways Winterhawks showed a lot of composure in coming out ahead in four straight tightly contested encounters through the round robin and opening playoff rounds. Their victims included Georgetown (5-2), Newmarket (3-1), Vaughan (5-2) and the Pickering AAA bantams (3-1).

Josh Arnold and Chris Kovachik split the netminding duties and were rock solid the entire weekend.

Captain Jordan Jeans led the way with five goals and five assists while Andrew Kirkland potted six goals and assisted on three others.

The team's top play maker — with a half-dozen helpers to go along with his single tally — was Derek Mewhinney.

Explosive victory

Scoring early and often in Flamborough Sunday, Milton's A major atoms blasted the hosts Sabres 8-2.

Graham Sharp enjoyed the lion's share of the offensive pie — scoring a couple of goals and assisting on three others, including the final nail in the coffin by Andrew McLean.

A number of other standout performances were delivered including one by Chris Shortt. He put the visitors on the scoreboard midway through the opening period and then added insult to injury by tallying twice in the final frame to complete his hat-trick.
