What does February mean to you?
 At Milton Heights Academy we are ready, willing and able to give your child a chance to excel, catch up, or just soar ahead in a tranquil, stress-free, natural environment where our emphasis is focused on developing your child's self-esteem and meeting their need for individual attention.

Why wait?
 Now is the time to act. Invest in your child's future today. Put your child's education first and make these next 5 months really count.

Enrollment for September
 Spaces for the 2000-2001 school year are filling up faster than expected. Please come and visit us soon and register without delay to avoid disappointment.

Summer Camp
 A variety of camp programs will be offered in the summer, including an academic program, computer activities and lots of fun!

Please contact the Principal, Deborah Martin for further information
