

Beautiful Face...

yourself a weekly mini-manicure from now until the big day.

The day before the wedding do all those last-minute things such as removing unwanted hair, painting your nails and having a pedicure. If you've got time, treat yourself to a relaxing hour-long massage to soothe away any pre-wedding jitters. Most importantly, don't forget to enjoy yourself!

It's here, your big day! Relax in a luxuriously fragrant bath. The best way to ensure that your perfume lasts throughout your wedding day is to layer it with products of the same scent. Choose your (or your fiancé's) favourite fragrance and then indulge yourself. Start by having a bath or shower using scented gels and soaps, then apply your body lotion or moisturizer, talc or deodorant and finish with a quick spritz of eau de toilette (pure perfume is too strong) on your pulse points. Don't spray perfume directly on your dress as it will stain. Instead spray a cloud in front of you and walk through it.
