

A minor bantams stage strong series comeback

Milton's A minor bantams may have needed a little drama to force a sixth and deciding game out of first round provincial playoff opponent Elora.

But when it came time to clinch the series, it was sheer dominance that helped the local boys advance.

The Lafarge Winterhawks gained momentum as round one progressed and punctuated a big series comeback by thrashing Elora 11-4.

Dustin Smith led with a pair of goals and three assists while also tallying twice were Ian Kornack, Jeff Webber and Jake Madansky — who alongside fellow call-ups David Aggio and Kyle Saliba performed well in place of sidelined regulars Mark McLeod and Brett Taylor.

Aggio scored on a penalty shot and other single markers were delivered by Brandon Gwillam and James MacIntosh.

Though not heavily challenged by Elora, Mike Sanders gave a strong performance between the pipes.

Remarkable rally

Milton's A midgets didn't draw first blood, but they certainly delivered the knockout punch in opening round provincial playoff action recently.

The Feherguard Winterhawks lost game one of their best-of-five series with Guelph but stormed back to collect three consecutive victories and take the series.

Rep Hockey

They clinched round one by toppling their opponents 4-1. James Ball tallied twice with single markers added by Jeff Anthony and Ryan Harper.

Combining for an impressive defensive effort were Harper, Kevin Cooper, Richard Roskam and Quinn Young.

Before that the locals squeaked by in game three 3-2 — thanks to a pair of goals by Chris Domencu and a three-assist performance by Rob Falls. Also lighting the lamp in the nail bitter was Steve Chuchmach.

Offense returns

Milton's AA midgets were plenty irate after losing round one of the provincial playdowns to Brampton.

So they took their frustrations out on Georgetown in Tri County play Saturday at Memorial Arena.

The Spectrum Airways Winterhawks' firepower reappeared after a week's hiatus and allowed them to prevail 7-3.

Captain Jordan Jeans led the way with a hat-trick while Mike Austen — one of the team's best two-way players — tallied twice and added a couple of assists. Darryl Langstone had a goal and three helpers while also scoring was Justin Tingley.
