Drury wrestlers handily reclaim regional crown at championships

Simply sensational. E.C. Drury's wrestling team was just that while hosting the Halton Championships Thursday. The perennial powerhouse has traditionally won regionals in convincing fashion — but captured its sixth straight title, and 13th in 15 years, with unprecedented dominance. Larry Jaroslowski's troops grabbed over two dozen medals and collected a total of 235 points, 90 more than runner-up Georgetown.

Nine Spartans took gold while exactly three dozen qualified for the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference (GHAC) finals, slated for tomorrow at Hamilton's Bishop Ryan.

Leading the hit parade with their fourth regional crowns were John McCart and Kevin Heffron — who just a few days earlier in Guelph had become only the fifth local wrestler to reach the 200-win plateau.

Chad Merritt and Rob Petherick won their second titles while first-time gold medalists included Nick Barkley, Mike Devries, Rory McDonell, Adam Scott and Will Van Duyn.

Van Duyn and McDonell's victories over Georgetown Rebels Kevin Moore and Sean Krysa respectively were arguably the most competitive clashes in the championship round.

Spartan silver medalists included Adam Baxter, Sean Burnham, Graham Carroll, Ryan Faria, Tom Gallinger, Chris Guard, Matt Harnett, Chris Holmes, Jason Landry and Mark Wilson.

Nick Baron, Matt Baxter, Craig Brigden, Steve Ellis, Kevin Moore, Jeff Roberge and Andy Wadeson all took bronze medals.

Six days earlier — also within the friendly confines of their own athletic complex — the local team reclaimed its Junior Halton crown by doubling Georgetown 48-25.

Drury's regional champs included Landry, Petherick, Nick Baron, Rashaad Fataar, Matt Knock and Jordan Lumb.

Securing silver were Devries, Alex Kerr, Andrew Kerr, Kevin Moore and Jesse Ronan while Ryan Anthony, Andrew Bishop and Colin Burnham took

E.C. volleyballers edged in semifinals

For E.C. Drury High School's senior girls volleyball squad, intensity equals victory.

So says head coach Linda Price. The Spartans skipper firmly believes — and with good reason, following a near perfect regular season — that when her team is in high gear, they're awfully tough to beat.

Unfortunately, Drury had trouble shifting out of neutral at crucial points in their tournament semifinal showdown with Oakville Trafalgar Friday afternoon.

This — plus a shortened bench, due to a weekend ski trip — cost them to fall 19-25, 25-20, 18-25.
