High complaint areas will be pinpointed, and the public will be kept up to date on the roving teams through the media.

"Drivers found committing these infractions will pay in fines and demerit points," said Chief Algar. "The motorists driving in this community need to know that the officers are out there to make the highways in this region safe."

Some traffic troubles can be tied to the infrequent closure of major transportation corridors such as the QEW or Highway 401 due to accidents.

Motorist fleeing clogged highways then spill onto unfamiliar residential streets, resulting in traffic complaints or collisions.
