Are You a Good Listener

Some experts suggest that women tend to be better listeners than men. In fact, many husbands are notorious for being poor listeners. Perhaps you are familiar with the scene of a husband reading the newspaper while his wife is trying to talk. His response is "Yes dear. Uh, huh. Mmmm. Is that so?" But he's not really listening. Suddenly, his wife pulls down the newspaper and asks, "Have you heard a word I've said?!"

Two men were talking one day. One of them said, "My wife talks to herself a lot." His friend answered, "Mine does, too, but she doesn't know it. She thinks I'm listening."

Poor listening, however, is not just attributed to men. Sometimes, all of us listen poorly - as a group of passengers on an airplane when the stewardess is making the required safety announcement. Patricia Goldman, the vice chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, tells story about a stewardess who, frustrated by passenger inattentiveness during her talk, changed the wording and said, "When the mask drops down in front of you, place it over your nasal and continue to breathe normally." Not a single passenger noticed.

I read about a middle-aged woman who suffered with a hearing problem. One day, she and her husband were driving from New Brunswick to Ontario. They were pulled over by an OPP officer who asked if the husband knew how fast he was driving? The wife asked, "What did he say?" The husband replied, "HE ASKED IF I KNEW THAT I WAS SPEEDING." Looking at the driver's license, the officer said, "I see you're not from around here." The husband said, "No, we are from Moncton." The wife again asked, "What did you say?" The husband told her, "I SAID WE ARE FROM MONCTON." The officer then commented, "You know, the meanest woman I ever met was from Moncton." The wife again asked "What did he say?" The husband replied, "HE SAYS HE THINKS HE KNOWS YOU!"

Jesus said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear." It is possible to hear with our physical ears and not to hear with our ears of spiritual understanding. Often, our ears can become clogged by the wax of worry, stress or anxiety so that we fail to hear what the Spirit is trying to communicate.

But God desires to speak to us! He desires to reveal His will to us, and to be actively involved in leading us. From the beginning of the creation of man, and continuing throughout history. God has wanted to communicate with His creation. He walked in the cool of the day with Adam. He spoke to men and women who followed Him throughout the ages. Today, He calls us to be led by His Spirit - which entails hearing His voice as He speaks through the written Word and our private time with Him.

Troubled? Perplexed? Full of anxiety? Paralyzed by fear? Set aside your cares. Pray. Turn to God today. He cares for you! Then listen for His answer. He wants to talk to you.

Consider visiting a church near you this Sunday morning. Service times and locations are published in the directory below. Learn to listen for His voice!

BAHA'I

Know thou of a truth that the soul, after its separation from the body, will continue to progress until it attaineth the presence of God, in a state and condition which neither the revolution of ages and centuries, nor the changes and chances of this world can alter. It will endure as long as the Kingdom of God, His sovereignty, His dominion and power will endure.
