Dedication for 'Walk of Life'

St. Paul's United Church's Walk of Life will be a lasting memorial to the people of Milton, says the head of a committee overseeing the project.

Paul Lonergan, chair of the Walk of Life Committee, said the walkway outside the Main Street church features landscaping with oak trees and paving stones with inscribed messages.

The committee started selling the stones, he said, as a way to pay for improvements to the church.

But the popularity and beauty of the stones could make it an ongoing way to raise money.

"We have had many donations from families wanting to make a lasting statement of their life in Milton," Mr. Lonergan said.

"Many commemorate the birth of a child, a wedding, even the passing of a loved one."

The Walk of Life is part of the fundraising campaign to raise $340,000 to pay for the elevator, building expansion and front entrance improvements, he said.

St. Paul's will host a dedication ceremony May 7. Donors and volunteers will be recognized for their contributions to the project, he said.
