

Off to New Brunswick

Local choir looking for sponsors

Buying and mile or more will help send the Milton Youth Chorus on exciting summer exchange program

The Milton Youth Chorus, directed by Monette Gould, is planning a summer trip to New Brunswick as part of an exchange program with the Young Acadian Singers.

In order to raise money for the trip, the chorus is asking local businesses for help via sponsorships.

The Milton Youth Chorus has come up with the 'Buy a Mile' campaign in which Milton businesses can buy as many miles as they wish for the children on their travel of 1,490 miles to New Brunswick and back.

Sponsorship opportunities include one mile for $25, 10 miles for $50, 20 miles for $75, 25 miles for $100 and 50 miles for $200.

Sponsors acknowledged

Though a charitable donation receipt cannot be given for any donations, all sponsors will be acknowledged in Milton Youth Chorus programs.

All cheques can be made payable to the Milton Youth Chorus and sent to: Mary Van Dijk, president, Milton Youth Chorus, R.R. 2, Campbellville, Ont., L0P 1B0.

Contact Ms Van Dijk at 854-0263 for further information.

Run by volunteers, the Milton Youth Chorus is a non-profit organization established in 1991 and since then has run a community choir for children aged 8 to 16 years.

Exhibition will feature local artists

Award-winning Milton artists Maureen Casteller and Virginia Wilson will team up for a colourful spring exhibition called 'Catch the Sun'.

The show will open Wednesday and continue until May 14 at the William's Mill Gallery in Glen Williams.

Though the artists each work in a different medium, both share a common thread with their use of colour and shape.

Ms Wilson creates glass art and can be seen during the summer months at the Ontario Renaissance Festival blowing glass.

Meanwhile, Ms Casteller paints large contemporary mixed media paintings. She has worked diligently to promote arts and culture in Halton through Arts Milton and the Milton Leisure Centre.

The artists will be on hand at the show Saturday, Apr. 22 from 2 to 4 p.m.

The gallery is located at 515 Main St. Glen Williams is situated between Terra Cotta and Georgetown.

Call 873-8203 for further information.

Flurry of awards for dancers

Members of Dance Elite's senior competitive company represent Milton well in two recent contests

Milton's Dance Elite Competitive Company has kicked off the competitive season with a flurry of awards from recent competitions.

The senior company, under the direction of Marnie Palmer, took home the choreography award for the 'Drums on the Nile' modern dance.

Choreographed by Ms Palmer, it was performed by Katie DeCaire, Ashleigh Lewis, Sarah Hamilton, Jennifer Pender, Garion Sparks-Austin and Andrea Stockton.

The top novice duet or trio award went to Addison Brasil and Allana McLeod for the jazz duet 'Jump, Shout, Boogie'.

The competitive team also earned first, second and third-place awards as well as judges picks such as 'Great Potential, Technique and Style and Terrific Timing'.

And Sarah Hamilton's lyrical solo 'Crucify' won her a fifth place finish in the contest's overall solo category.

The contests included the Rhythm Dance Competition in Hamilton and the CDTA Competition.
