Mulé shines again with the Twisters

Sports Shorts

Victoria Mulé was once again the star — but couldn't quite add team saviour to her resume this time around.

Milton's gifted sniper tallied twice and added a pair of assists for her Halton Hills Twisters' minor peewee girls hockey squad during last weekend's Ontario 'B' Championships in Brampton.

Unfortunately, her offensive efforts were about all the club could muster at the provincial finals — as they recorded only a handful of goals through four games in an extremely tough division that included the eventual gold and silver medalists.

Mulé — whose overtime heroics gave the team the North Metro League title two weeks earlier — had a goal and an assist in Halton Hills' only win, a 3-1 round one victory against Barrie.

From there, she picked up an assist in a 4-1 loss to Wingham and scored the lone tally in a 3-1 defeat to Cobourg.

Halton Hills would then close out round robin play by being blanked by eventual champions St. Catharines 3-0.

All-star selection

Milton's Jon Gleed sure knows how to close out a hockey season in style.

The 6'1", 160 lbs. defenceman spent the majority of the year with the Mississauga Reps' AAA major bantams with fellow local Ryan McManus — but once they were eliminated from the playoffs, he was called up to the midget team.

Making the most of this opportunity, he helped lead them to the GTHL championship and ultimately a third-place showing at the All-Ontario finals in North York — where he was named to the tournament's all-star squad.

Gleed, 16, had a couple of assists and a fantastic defensive effort in Mississauga's 6-3 win over Don Mills in the bronze-medal tilt.

He and McManus — as well as a number of other local players, including Mississauga Rebels' Dan Rogers — are among those who stand a good chance of being picked up in the Ontario Hockey League's bantam draft in June.

Triathlon training

Tina Braam, founder of Women's Triathlon Milton, will be hosting a series of training clinics for female athletes at the Milton Leisure Centre.

The first session runs this Tuesday, April 25 from 7 to 9 p.m. Topics covered will include health and wellness through exercise, setting up a training schedule as well as nutrition for training and racing.

Other clinics, that will progress to specific racing techniques and finally to a dry run triathlon, are set for June 20 and August 8. The cost for each clinic is $20, while all three can be attended for $50.

For more information, call Sue Leeder at 878-7329 or Tina Braam at 878-7104.
