

Police seek driver who hit cyclists

Collision caused domino effect

Halton Regional Police are looking for the driver of an older model green or grey Oldsmobile Cutless that hit one cyclist, causing a domino effect for two others.

The driver fled the scene of the accident, which occurred May 10 at 6:25 p.m.

Five cyclists were riding their bicycles eastbound along the edge of No. 5 Sideroad. The vehicle was also travelling eastbound.

Three bicycles collided after one was hit by the car. The cyclists went into the ditch.

One cyclist, a 42-year-old Georgetown resident, suffered face, forehead, wrist and elbow injuries and was taken to by ambulance to Milton District Hospital by ambulance.

The two other cyclists weren't injured.
