

LEAVE THE KIDS SPEECHLESS.

Mohawk Family Fireworks Festival
Sunday, May 21st.

The Mohawk Family Fireworks Festival kicks off at 6 pm with free pony rides, face painting, a petting zoo, craft tables, magicians and more. There'll be a mouth watering BBQ with food specials for kids, and of course, a huge fireworks display beginning at dusk. Sorry, no live harness racing that night.

Police Blotter

Tractor-trailer unit stolen from eatery over last weekend

A tractor-trailer unit worth about $110,000 was stolen from the Chalet restaurant on Regional Road 25 sometime between Saturday at 5 p.m. and Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The keys weren't in the vehicle.

A 1989 black Pete 379 CT truck and a 35-foot long dump truck-style silver trailer were taken in the heist.

Vehicles damaged

Nine vehicles were damaged at the Wallace car dealership on Main Street sometime between May 10 and 15.

The hoods of the vehicles were scratched causing between $200 and $300 worth of damage to each car.

The vehicles included a 2000 Pontiac Sunfire, two 1999 Safari vans, a 1999 Pontiac TransAm, two 1998 Pontiac Transports, a 1997 Pontiac Sunfire, a 1997 Pontiac Safari and a 1996 Ford Windstar.

People who know anything about this incident should call Crime Stoppers at 825-TIPS or Halton Regional Police at 878-5511.

Hunting bows stolen

Two camouflaged hunting bows were stolen from a Bell Street home sometime between April 28 and May 8.

The incident was reported on May 10.

The thieves climbed on the roof to gain access to the unlocked storage area on the balcony. A compound bow and a crossbow were stolen. There were no dollar estimates.

Impaired driving charge

A 60-year-old Waterdown man was charged with impaired driving and having over the legal limit of alcohol in his blood after a driver was stopped by police for a traffic violation Tuesday.

Police pulled over a 1998 Ford Windstar on Guelph Line, south of Steeles Avenue, at about 11:15 p.m. for speeding.

Fooseball table stolen

A Fooseball table was stolen from Trillium School sometime between last Friday and Wednesday.

The thieves gained entry into the Ontario Street school through a rear window. The blue and red table was worth about $400.

Det. Sgt. Jackie Gordon of Halton Police said there were other items in this location, but nothing else was stolen.

Vehicle missing

A 1998 Dodge Stratus was stolen from Mohawk Raceway sometime between last Friday at 8:30 p.m. and Saturday at 12:30 a.m.

The Milton owner of the vehicle told police his VISA card and driver's licence were also stolen. A substantial amount of money was later charged to his credit card.

Left without paying

An owner of a green Chrysler Intrepid left the Esso gas station on Regional Road 25 Saturday without paying for his gas.

The motorist filled his tank with $40 worth of gas at about 8 p.m. and then fled.

Identification stolen

A landscaper doing work at the Muddy Duck restaurant Monday had identification, bank cards and $50 stolen from his wallet.

The man was at the Steeles Avenue restaurant between 11 a.m. and noon. His wallet was on top of a cooler that was sitting on his truck. Some of the items were recovered, but several are still missing.

Dumpster fire

A dumpster at E.W. Foster School was lit on fire last Friday. A resident walking by the Coxe Boulevard school at about 6:05 p.m. noticed the blaze. Police and the fire department were called.

The dumpster was worth about $50.

Tires stolen

Four tires were stolen from Gorrud car dealership on Steeles Avenue between Saturday at 11:30 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m.

The tires, worth about $2,000, were taken from a 1998 Honda Civic. Police are investigating.
