DATELINE DRURY AT E.C. DRURY HIGH SCHOOL

Dateline Drury

By Candice Hugo, Sarah Hamilton, Kristyn DiGirolamo

Can you believe that it is almost June? It seems like just yesterday that students were preparing for semester turn around and now teachers are handing out exam schedules. Although there is only a month and a half left of school, many events are still being organized. All the committees at Drury want to end this year with a bang.

The last big event that the Student Athletic Society is busy preparing is the annual athletic banquet. make sure you keep June 13th free on your calendar because this year's banquet is going to blow you away. Tickets are going to be sold in the locker bay, for seven dollars until June 2nd and then the price will be raised to nine dollars. Remember that the Athletic Banquet is for everyone and just because you weren't on a team does not mean you are not welcome. The Athletic Society hopes to see everyone there.

Ticket sellers were busy this week. Students could buy Athletic Banquet tickets as well as tickets to the beach dance. in order to get everyone excited for the dance the Student Council played Caribbean music every morning on the announcements and held a beach day. Students dressed in Hawaiian shirts and sandals, participated in activities such as watermelon eating and limbo contests. Everyone had a blast.

Some students were dancing in beach wear at the dance and also performing this week for the literary coffee house. Wednesday night was an opportunity for students to let their talents in writing, dancing, music and art shine. Parents and friends gathered to provide a rapt audience for Drury's writers, dancers and singers. The artistic side of Drury soared during this year's Literary Coffee House.

Before this edition of Dateline Drury comes to a close the Prom Committee would just like to remind everyone that tickets will only be sold until June first. The price of a ticket is now sixty dollars and if you wish to have a photograph taken by Jostens at prom you will need to pay sixty-five dollars for your ticket. By now everyone should also be booking their limos. A list of limo companies is located on the prom board for your convenience. Make sure that you don't leave booking until the last minute!

Well that about wraps up this week's news. Just a last minute reminder that yearbooks will only be sold until June 1st. Make sure you buy yours soon because you will not be able to buy the 1999-2000 yearbook next fall. have a great, safe weekend.

ROYAL REPORT BISHOP REDING HIGH SCHOOL

Royal Report
By Diana Bedoya & Justin Yantho

After months of preparation, the much anticipated annual Bishop Reding Carnival occurred today. Many volunteers made the day an enormous success and students enjoyed themselves at the various events the Carnival hosted. The morning trivia activities, which included song, television, movie and, of course, school trivia, served as excellent precursors to the day. In contrast to the general opinions of some students, Bishop Reding was not first located in Speyside and it was not founded in 1954. Student government would like to thank all those who participated in the day's events and especially those teachers who volunteered their services in the dunk tank.

The environmental club beautified the school by organizing an outdoor garbage collection competition. Congratulations to Mr. Bertin's class who garnered 11 bags of refuse. This event was a reminder to student that we can always improve our waste placement habits. One thing that isn't a waste of time is the informative meeting on May 31 regarding OSAP loans. This assembly will provide a chance to acquire OSAP application forms. Graduating students should also be aware that photos for the grade slide show are now due.

Students who wrote the University of Waterloo math contests were made aware of their results this past week. The Pascal, Cayley and Fermat contests were written by nearly 8,000 students. Top placements at Bishop Reding included Kieran Cunney, Mark Laframboise, and Nicole Gooding in the Pascal contest; Kate Kelly, Meghan Moroney and Daniela Pirragha in the Cayley Contest; and Kevin Yam and Chris Grace in the Fermat Contest. The Descartes math contest for OAC students also revealed its results. Congratulations is extended to Danny Ferreira, David McGowan and Jakub Wiktor for their top placements at BR.

Bishop Reding sports teams have turned in exceptional results over this past week. The senior boys basketball team trounced Nelson with an 8-5 result. The junior boys soccer team has carries their undefeated streak into post season play. The team won a hard fought game against Nelson 2-0. The senior tennis team displayed great tenacity at the Halton championships. The team played well and placed second, only two points away from top honours. Chris Morrisawa delivered again by winning the Halton's single title for the fourth year in a row.

Congratulations to all the high achievers at Bishop Reding. In academics, arts and sports, students continually show their high levels of excellence. Hopefully, this level of achievement will help many with their upcoming exams and in future years.

GRADE "A" NEWS AT MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

Grade "A" News at MDHS

We hope that everyone enjoyed the long weekend and the short school week! We're sure that for most it was a well deserved holiday. To start off this week we would like to thank Sony Dhillion, BJ Ferrier and Ben Stirling for doing such a great job organizing the Walk Against Violence. It was great to see students from all over Milton walking to support such a good cause.

M.D.H.S. held the annual Spring Concert on Wednesday May 24th at 7:30pm. The concert was held in the theatre. Feature performers were the M.D.H.S. Concert Band, Choir, Jazz Band, Vocal Band and Jr. Band. Tickets were sold to students and seniors for $3, to adults for $5, and to families for $10. Thanks to everyone who came out to support the musical community at M.D.H.S. and congratulations to all of the very talented performers!

This year's Arts Banquet has been scheduled for June 13th at 6:30 to 9:00pm. To make this year's banquet unique it is going to be an ice cream social. Prizes will be awarded for the most creative sundaes. That's right prizes, so don't forget to buy your ticket for only $5. As well, you may be eligible to receive your Arts pin if you are graduating this year and you have accumulated 30 points or more. For everyone wanting to make this year's Arts Banquet one to remember you are more than welcome to perform, just see one of the music or drama teachers.

You may have noticed students from the entrepreneurship class fundraising in the front hall to make one of our very own M.D.H.S. teachers dress up as a clown for a day. There are six teachers and each teacher has a jar. At the end of the fundraiser the money in each jar is counted and the teacher who has the most money in their jar has to dye their hair and put on a clown costume. On the day of the dress up students can also donate an extra dollar to throw whip cream pies at the teacher outside the caff. Sounds like fun so hopefully everyone chipped in for their favourite teacher!

M.D.H.S.'s track and field team was very successful, winning three gold medals, at their last track meet. Shawna Turner had a 10:37 m performance in the senior girls triple jump. Topping her age group, Caylene Lyall launched 21.63 in javelin. Lee Frittenburg threw 12.29 m in midget boys shot-put. With a leap of 1.75 m Brent Smith came second in the senior boys high jump while Ian Robinson came third among the junior boys clearing 1.80 m. Ian Robinson also finished fourth place in junior boys long jump. Sharalee Dempster managed to finish fourth. Claudius Dennis finished fourth in senior boys long jump. In the 400m Melanie Casson finished fifth. Finally, Jeff O'Million finished fifth in the 110 junior boys hurdles. Congratulations to all of the track and field members who put out a strong effort!

One final reminder before we conclude, there are only a few yearbooks left to be sold and they are going fast. Talk to Mrs. O'Reilly if you wish to buy one of these last few copies, but be quick! Have a good weekend even though it isn't a long one!
