

Historical home tour coming up

You've probably driven past some of Milton's historical homes thousands of times. Now is your chance to see what they look like inside.

The second annual Historical Homes Tour offers people a chance to see the interior of six homes and Knox Presbyterian Church. The buildings were constructed between 1851 to 1911.

The event, sponsored by the Milton Historical Society (MHS), will be held June 10 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Tickets cost $15 and include a booklet with a map and a description of each home.

There will be no set route or times, so people can do the tour at their own pace. Costumed guides from the Milton Players Theatre Group will be at each building to answer questions.

New this year will be the Renovation Showcase at St. Paul's United Church, 123 Main St., from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The event will bring together people who restore houses. Visitors will be able to attend booths and ask the professionals questions.

St. Paul's will provide a food booth. Proceeds will go to the church.

The MHS started the house tour as a way to raise money for the restoration of the Waldie Blacksmith Shop, that was built in 1864.

Dorrie Murdoch, publicity coordinator for the MHS, said the ultimate goal for the blacksmith shop is to convert it into an educational facility. The building could be used to host blacksmith demonstrations, seminars, tours and craft shows.

Tickets for the tour can be purchased at Bergsma's, Kalena Flowers, From Our Farm, Harris Stationary, Global Genealogy, Delacourt's, Peggy's of Milton, Jo'Leen's and Vincent's Art and Antiques. For details call 876-1872.

Child safety seat info from car dealerships

Local car dealers are helping educate people on how to correctly install child safety seats.

When people purchase a new car from Gallinger Motors, Hunt Chrysler, Milton Chrysler-Dodge, North End Nissan or Richardson Chev-Olds, they will receive a list of upcoming child safety seat clinics and a pamphlet detailing how to properly install the devices.

According to the Milton Road Safety Committee, 93 per cent of Miltonians who attended a child safety seat clinic had improperly installed seats.

It does not get better than this.
