Art show at Springridge

Fun for whole family during two-day sale

Springridge Farm will get a little artistic this weekend.

Saturday and Sunday, the popular summer site will play host to nearly two dozen area artists for the fourth annual Fine Arts Society of Milton Art Show and Sale.

This free weekend event, which runs from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days, will feature only original work from a variety of local crafts people.

Visitors will also have an opportunity to enjoy Springridge's many treats including a haystack for the children, fresh produce and baked goods.

Springridge Farm is located at 7256 Bell School Line, north of Derry Road and south of Steeles Avenue.

Please call 878-2341 with your arts and entertainment story ideas. Ask for the newsroom.

Dancers take home top prize in contest

Milton's Dance Elite hoofers put their best foot forward in two recent dance competitions.

During the I Love Dance competition, which took place in Buffalo, New York, the Senior Company took home top prize for their jazz number You're the Boss.

The jazz trio Trouble, consisting of dancers Katie DeCaire, Sara Hamilton and Ashleigh Lewis, picked up second place. Third overall was nabbed by the jazz group Wanna Be Startin' Something from the Intermediate Company.

Dance Elite didn't go home empty-handed from the Canadian National Dance Championship's regional contest in Guelph, either.

Jade Ryan, 10, wowed the judges to earn the title of junior solo dancer with her acro There's No Business Like Show Business routine.

And Jump, Shout and Boogie, a junior duet consisting of Allana McLeod and Addison Brasil, received junior highest overall duet at both recent contests.

The Canadian Championships will take place in Guelph this July.
