Up, up and away

Members of the Oakville Model Flying Club were out at Hornby's Drumquin Park recently, tuning up their various aircrafts for their fifth annual Airshow slated for Sunday, June 25 at Drumquin. Visitors to the extravaganza — which runs from 12:30 to 3 p.m. — will get an opportunity to fly these radio controlled planes under the direction of seasoned instructors. Proceeds from the event will once again go to the Oakville Food Bank.
