

Hat fashion show feature of tea

Forget the ladies who lunch. Instead, Campbellville will soon be treated to the sophistication of a Victorian Tea with the 'Hat Ladies' Saturday at St. David's Presbyterian Church.

For $10, the event will feature an extensive, stylish and witty vintage hat fashion show, presented by the creators of the Mobile Millinery Museum.

Proceeds will go to the church's Growing in Faith building addition.

Norma Shephard and Linda Francis first stumbled into their unique hobby just two years ago with the purchase of a 1940s green Harlequin straw.

Or, in Ms Shephard's words, "one green monstrosity."

Since then, the pair have collected more than 1,100 hats dating from the Victorian era to the 1960s.

They've also managed to collect 4,000 pieces of vintage clothing and accessories.

So far, the Mobile Millinery Museum has sent artifacts as far afield as British Columbia, Alberta, Quebec, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward island and several places in Ontario.

The June 17 event will feature two hat fashion shows complete with models and full commentary. The first sitting will be held from 1 to 2:30 p.m.; the second from 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Viewers are invited to join in the fun by dressing up in a vintage hat and/or gloves.

For tickets or more information, call Norma Smith at 854-2156, Noreen at 854-2479 or Gail at 878-4944.

St. David's is located on Guelph Line by Hwy. 401 in Campbellville.
