Nantyglo is - Welsh for River of Coal

Susan Cottrell-Raby the owner of Nantyglo Wool Shop has been keeping her customers in stitches for the past three years!! Yes, it's her business to keep them in knitting, embroidery and crochet stitches at all times.

The minute you walk through the door you'll be delighted. Susan has lovingly stocked her shop with the best selection of yarns, and supplies. Nantyglo Wool Shop carries a huge selection from the softest baby yarns, to denim look. You'll find a good selection of pattern books to either help you get started if you're a beginner, or advanced books for the at home pros. Some of her newest selection of pattern books include Colourful Afghans and pillows to make in worsted yarn; Twin sets are all the rage this year and the Summer Time pattern book includes patterns for tank tops, shawls, vests and more. Also for summer the Golf Club Collection includes patterns for vests, cardigans, pullovers and golf club covers to knit. And this summer why not crochet yourself a great looking bathing suit. Crochet suits are back in a big way!

Her pattern books range from craft items, to sweaters and more, for every member of your family. And don't laugh but a leaflet on Christmas tree decorations is really an ideal project for the summer holiday months. Nantyglo Wool Shop has a fabulous selection of embroidery yarns as well. Every colour you could imagine is displayed on the embroidery wall. There are so many beautiful colours you'll have no trouble finding just the right ones for your next project. Susan also carries Paternayan Persian wool for the finest tapestry in over 400 colours, along with painted needlepoint canvases. Nantyglo Wool Shop also stocks a great selection of accessories. Susan has knitting needles that range from the traditional to needles made of Casein- a pure dairy product which has been converted by an age old plasticising technique into knitting needles unsurpassed in quality, to Brittany's finely crafted hardwood needles made from Eastern Black Walnut and New England white birch. But it doesn't stop there. Nantyglo Wool Shop carries cross stitch books and charts, knitting kits with everything you'll need to complete a project whether it's a sweater, afghan, or a designer scarf, buttons, and personalized labels to sew onto your finished work.

And it doesn't stop there. Susan is always ready to answer any of your questions, whether it's regarding wools or about any difficulties you may be having with your project. Susan will be holding Sunday afternoon workshops in the fall. You'll often see ladies sitting in the shop having a great time knitting and chatting. You can also commission Susan to do custom knitting for you.

Nantyglo Wool Shop is also involved in many community organizations including Project Linus which knits security blankets for needy children. To date Project Linus has been able to deliver over 57,000 blankets to seriously ill and traumatized children all over Canada, the US, Australia and extending to such remote locations and Honduras and Kazakstan. How can you help? Make a blanket and donate it to Project Linus. The ideal blanket is no larger than 40" x 60" or no smaller than 30" x 40". You can use any pattern and colour but it must be washable. Nantyglo Wool Shop will be happy to collect all blankets and forward them on to the Canadian and Toronto co-ordinator.

So for all these reasons and many, many more, why not stop in to Nantyglo Wool Shop today. Whether you've been thinking about learning to knit, crochet, or you're a knitter who's looking for great selection and service, stop in and see Susan. You'll always be greeted with a smile and friendly advice.
