

Tactical and rescue unit brought in on gun shot call

Halton Regional Police's Tactical and Rescue Unit was called to a Lower Base Line home Tuesday evening after receiving reports of gun shots.

At 9:15 p.m., a visitor to the rural Milton home called police after he heard gun shots coming from both inside and outside the residence, said Det. Sgt. Jackie Gordon.

The visitor told police he entered the house, took a rifle away from a man, emptied the ammunition and returned the rifle.

A 35-year-old Lower Base Line man was charged with careless use and careless storage of a firearm.

He was released on bail with conditions and will appear in Ontario Court (provincial division) in Milton Monday.

Failure to remain

Police are looking for witnesses to an accident in which a driver failed to remain at the scene.

Last Friday at about 8 p.m., a man was driving out of the parking lot at 459 Main St. E.

A woman, driving a blue Saturn, pulled out in front of his car, causing him to swerve and hit the building, Det. Sgt. Gordon said.

The cab of the man's 1993 GMC truck was damaged.

The woman is described as in her early twenties with blond hair. Witnesses are asked to call police at 878-5511, ext. 2405.
